LEGENDS? - THIS AUTUMN WE GOT 'EM!

Legendary figures in music and movies dot our September landscape with titles that will make your collection just as legendary!

Legends lurk everywhere in Ridley Scott's fantasy classic LEGEND, a beefed up 2 bluray set from Arrow Video. Scott's original cut has been restored along with scores of extras, including commentary by Scott, a music video from Bryan Ferry and a score by Tangerine Dream. This new release negates all past Legends! Stars Tom Cruise with Tim Curry as the Lord of Darkness in over-the-top makeup. Horns Up!

Iconic horror writer Stephen King's CHILDREN OF THE CORN gets the 4K treatment. Arrow Video took great pains to restore the original camera negative of this creepy horror classic set in the Great Plains. And the reissue campaign of DUNE is not done (and neither are these puns!), as the limited edition Steelbook comes in September. David Lynch's 'film beyond your imagination' arrives in 4K with a collectible hard-shell case. Comedic revenge is on the menu in Severin Films' DROP DEAD FRED. Phoebe Cates plays a woman who conjures up a childhood imaginary menace named Drop Dead Fred to terrorize her enemies with poo-smearing and booger flinging! Marsha Mason, Rik Mayall and Carrie Fisher star join in the revelry.

The word 'legend' hardly seems to aptly describe the comedic genius of Mel Brooks, but we'll settle for it to keep the theme going! THE ORIGINAL LONDON CAST RECORDING-MEL BROOKS' YOUNG FRANKENSTEIN comes alive on vinyl, the 2-LP set being the first music of any of the Fronk-en-steen shows to present on wax. Listen in on private demo sessions from fabled country/rocker Gram Parsons on the back-in-print CD COSMIC AMERICAN MUSIC. Unreleased music that also features Emmylou Harris. Soft rock from Livingston Taylor is compiled on the CD THE EARLY YEARS (1970-1977), showing talent on par with Brother James. Britain's best blue-eyed soul idol Paul Carrack recorded his new CD ONE ON ONE while on lockdown, and the transition from blues purists to soft rock staples is preserved on Fleetwood Mac's 2 CD set of sugar MADISON BLUES.

Bikini Death Race - Refrigerator Vinyl

A mix of punk, synth-pop and electronica, neon lights, distorted bass and liberating screams.

The ironic, dadaist and nonsense approach of the first album is well preserved but with Refrigerator, the band have taken a deep dive into experimentation with analog synthesizers and drum machines - modelling a more defined sound by uniting the punk soul of their past with more varied and articulated songwriting.

Breathless - Breathless Vinyl

Belgian blend of Heavy and Speed Metal; the one and only album from 1985.

BREATHLESS' sadly only album from 1985 is pure metal magic: unhinged, unselfconscious, and unlike most of their Belgian contemporaries. Neither strictly traditional metal nor speed metal nor hard rock nor latent NWOBHM, Breathless was a blender of all the tastes of the time, and its indeed-breathless rush was sublime in its sheer energy and electricity.

Dark Quarterer - The Etruscan Prophecy Vinyl

Vinyl Reissue originally released in 1988, Gatefold cover with text

Dark Quarterer was an Italian progressive heavy metal band with a particular emphasis on doom-ish and epic metal arcane sound. Lead vocals are great, melancholic and sometimes high-pitched and guitar solos are very classy and melodic. The structure of the songs is complex and elaborate but very enjoyable. A mix of Legend, Cirith Ungol, Saracen, Manilla Road and Adramelch. A must!

Fate's Hand - Fate's Hand Vinyl

The Australian band's first traditionalist heavy metal opus.

With the roar of parting waves and the call of a thousand ravens, Australian heavy metal thunders into new being, under the moniker of FATE'S HAND. Across the band's self-titled debut EP visceral melody grasps tightly on the spear of classic heavy metal, hearkening to the genre's progenitors and in the same breath taunting, daring the very same gods. In a word, Fate's Hand is both old and new.

Karloff - The Appearing Vinyl

Diversifying their full throttle Black-Metalpunk approach, Karloff sound darker and meaner than ever.

Hailing from Germany, KARLOFF formed in 2018, describing their sound as "raw obscure punk turns into blackness." If KARLOFF's previous two demos presented them as a more gutter-level Midnight, then The Appearing recasts the band in a totally new, altogether more unique. The lead-heavy stomp here harkens to ancient days metalpunk like Carnivore, Best Wishes-era Cro-Mags, or even early Nasty Savage.

Ron Carter - Foursight-Stockholm Vinyl

NEA Jazz Master Ron Carter with Renee Rosnes, Jimmy Greene and Payton Crossley. Live in Sweden, November 17, 2018.

Accurate tone, unconditionally clear. The longest fingers of jazz seem to dance weightlessly along the wooden bridge; yearning, filigree and elegant. No one else sounds like Ron Carter. He produces a crisp groove like an electric bass, yet it is always clearly definable as the sound of a classical music instrument. Then the sound under the scorpion-like hands irresistibly swells. 180 gram vinyl!

Roxanne De Bastion - You & Me, We Are The Same Vinyl

Singer-songwriter Roxanne de Bastion announces the release of her cathartic second album 'You & Me, We Are The Same'.

The ten songs were written by Roxanne, then recorded and produced with Bernard Butler, during the two-year period Roxanne was losing her father. However, 'You & Me, We Are The Same' is not a sad album. It has moments of euphoria, of fun, of falling in love, as well as falling apart, because as Roxanne explains "all those things still happen, even in our darkest chapters."

Andrew Heath - New Eden CD

Represents the idea of finding a better place at the end of a difficult journey, of emerging into a dreamlike garden.

The album charts a more open and tonal direction than Andrew's recent releases. Written in the quieter, restricted times of the last winter and spring this year, Andrew became attracted to the idea of dreams and semi-conscious states. Certainly informed by those more 'drawn out' days, it reflects a calmer and less troubled self.

Breathless - Breathless CD

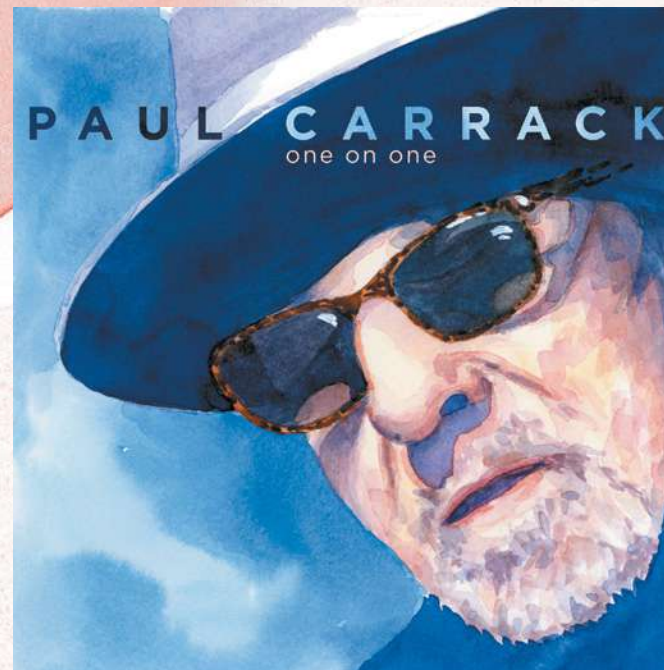

Belgian blend of Heavy and Speed Metal; the one and only album from 1985.

BREATHLESS' sadly only album from 1985 is pure metal magic: unhinged, unselfconscious, and unlike most of their Belgian contemporaries. Neither strictly traditional metal nor speed metal nor hard rock nor latent NWOBHM, Breathless was a blender of all the tastes of the time, and its indeed-breathless rush was sublime in its sheer energy and electricity.

Caedere - Eighty Years' War (Dutch War Of Independence) CD

Caedere is a mixture of US blast death metal and Swedish (old school) death metal. Brutal, but with a catchy edge.

The lyrical theme is the Dutch war of independence and the religious uproar between 1568 and 1648. Musically it is also a concept album, the last track features a theme which is prevalent in different shapes and sizes in all the other tracks, in a scorching blend of Brutal/Technical Death metal, interlaced with epic doom passages and haunting black metal riffs.

Demetrius Polyzoides & Janna Polyzoides - Eugene Ysaie: Works For Violin And Piano Vol. 1 CD

Demetrius Polyzoides and his sister Janna present the ballads and "Poèmes" on this double-CD album.

While the solo violin works by Eugène Ysaÿe have become some of the most played pieces of their genre, his music for violin and piano remains almost unknown to this day. Demetrius Polyzoides and his sister Janna present the ballads and "Poèmes" on this double-CD album, thus showing that the great violin virtuoso also has a lyrical, almost sentimental facet to his musical personality.

Fate's Hand - Fate's Hand CD

The Australian band's first traditionalist heavy metal opus.

With the roar of parting waves and the call of a thousand ravens, Australian heavy metal thunders into new being, under the moniker of FATE'S HAND. Across the band's self-titled debut EP visceral melody grasps tightly on the spear of classic heavy metal, hearkening to the genre's progenitors and in the same breath taunting, daring the very same gods. In a word, Fate's Hand is both old and new.

Shaun Johnson Big Band Experience - Made For Her

Original, pop-oriented big band album on the heels of a Top 5 Billboard debut

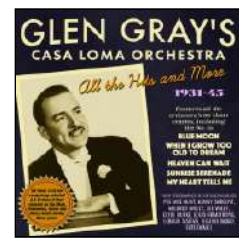

I'm surrounded by influential women in my life. My mom had four sisters - I have two - and growing up I enjoyed three great aunts who were like grandparents to me. Too, I started the Big Band Experience with an incomparable ally, Michelle, who has worked tirelessly by my side (Okay, actually I am usually running to catch up with her). And now, I am lucky to be surrounded by three daughters and a beautiful partner in my wife, Mary, who not only supports me at hundreds of shows (with three girls in tow and a career of her own), but who also creates videos and brainstorms the next great ideas with me. Each track on this album was made as an homage to those around me. And the thread that clearly connects each song is HER.

Grisly - Salting The Earth CD

Swedish Death Metal worshipping with a massive Bolt Thrower hit.

Rather than simply turning to "mainstream" Swedish death, Grisly are more into a slightly nastier, more depraved sound in terms of groove and melodies. These rather raw influences were borrowed from bands like Autopsy, Asphyx and Benediction, but since this is a representative of Swedish death metal, the melodies typical for it can't be missing, of course.

Karloff - The Appearing CD

Diversifying their full throttle Black-Metalpunk approach, Karloff sound darker and meaner than ever.

Hailing from Germany, KARLOFF formed in 2018, describing their sound as "raw obscure punk turns into blackness." If KARLOFF's previous two demos presented them as a more gutter-level Midnight, then The Appearing recasts the band in a totally new, altogether more unique. The lead-heavy stomp here harkens to ancientdays metalpunk like Carnivore, Best Wishes-era Cro-Mags, or even early Nasty Savage.

Leleka - Sonce U Serci CD

Leléka are delighting people with songs which are modern jazz but have their roots in the folk music of Ukraine.

Jazz only partially captures the idea behind the music. It is the creative basis, rhythmically and formally based on improvisational freedom. Harmonically, however, there are chamber jazz and folk-lore elements. Melodically, in articulation and phrasing, Viktoria Leléka clearly and strikingly follows folk music models of her Ukrainian homeland.

Michael Stephenson Meets The Alexander Claffy Trio CD

This album chooses 20th century American music to send its message for a reason and does so at a critical moment.

20th century American popular music is one of the greatest artistic gifts given to the world. Michael Stephenson and Alexander Claffy revel in this message at a critical moment. In pointing us to our past, this album makes a modern statement now. In the face of injustice, inequality and racism, this music reminds us of our capacity to love, to hold each other and to agitate for a better future.

John still remembers: "It was a great and responsive crowd. I gave a Nitzinger T-shirt to a small child who seemed to love it."

ATHENS INSIDE-OUT 2
RED TURNS INTO BLUE

From the maker of legendary documentary ATHENS, GA/INSIDE-OUT

A SEQUEL TO THE ORIGINAL, ATHENS, GA TRACES THE RISE OF A POLITICAL MOVEMENT IN ATHENS-CLARKE COUNTY

While still driven by the powerful music of the Athens scene, the new film traces the rise of a political movement in Athens-Clarke County and how it (along with many other groups within Georgia, of course) has filtered out, impacting the region and most recently arrived at the very forefront of this national moment!

Led by the success of the B-52's and R.E.M., Athens, Georgia was the most happening music scene in the country by the mid 80's/ Following several different bands from different genres, this film paints Athens as a magical artistic environment where bands are not in competition, but co-exist in harmony.

Musical performances by Cindy Wilson of the B-52's, Drive By Truckers, Kishi Bashi, Mariah Parker AKA Linqua Franqa, Pylon Reenactment Society (with Vanessa Briscoe Hay), Oh-Ok, Elf Power, Nihilist Cheerleader, David Barbe with New Madrid, Happyness with Peter Fancher and more.

Crazy Nights

Amanda Lear Takes You Into A World of Disco Depravity!

Italian exploitation icon Joe D'Amato's outrageous and rarely seen 1978 "mondo" movie meltdown CRAZY NIGHTS (aka Follie di notte) is one of the strangest snapshots of the disco era you'll ever see. The legendary and controversial performer Amanda Lear appears here as herself, singing her signature dance floor hit "Follow Me" while D'Amato's camera uses her as an entry point into the glamorous, eccentric, often depraved annals of Rome's after hours nightclub scene. But that's only scratching the surface. CRAZY NIGHTS then meanders - in true "mondo" fashion - all over the world, filling the screen with strippers, sex and ritualistic absurdity, all set to the beat of Lear's sultry cabaret pop sound.

Lear - who famously dated David Bowie, was the cover girl for many Roxy Music records and long served as Salvador Dali's lover and muse - was at the peak of her popularity when she signed on to film CRAZY NIGHTS. Originally pitched as a musical centered around her fame called FOLLOW ME, Lear believed the movie to be incomplete until - to her shock - it turned up in Italian theaters under the name Follie di notte. Horrified to discover that she had been tricked into starring in a full-blown exploitation film, Lear sued the producers, one of many reasons CRAZY NIGHTS has lapsed into virtual obscurity. Full Moon is pumped to be presenting this delirious and decidedly adult pseudo-documentary in its fully uncut edit, remastered from the original negative. Get ready for the wildest and weirdest "mondo" movie ever made!

PRESS

ANGELA LANSBURY'S SEDUCTIVE GEM FROM THE GOLDEN AGE OF NOIR

A LIFE AT STAKE

Kiss by Kiss...

Angela Lansbury and Keith Andes star in A Life At Stake, a highly charged mystery thriller from director Paul Guilfoyle! Spoiled young Doris Hillman (Lansbury) invites struggling architect Edward Shaw (Andes) to come in as her husband's partner in a lucrative real estate deal. However, when Edward becomes romantically involved with Doris, he learns that something deadly is going on. There's a life at stake, and it could be his own. This independent production from the golden age of film noir was described by the Los Angeles Times as "a study in fear." It also shows Angela Lansbury, already a double Oscar nominee, as you've never seen her. She's a charming femme fatale, but is she as bad as she seems?
