WE'RE FLUSH IN SEPTEMBER!

No ifs, ands or butts about it, it's a Ghou Summer at MVD with the release on DVD and Bluray of GHOULIES and GHOULIES II! These toilet-dwelling goblins rise again, making it a bummer for all who incur their wrath! Packed with bonus materials, featurettes, interviews and collectible posters, these sparkling new versions wipe out anything previously released! From Ghou to Cruel, CRUEL SUMMER slashes its way on Bluray this month. Teenagers in a secluded lake house stalked by a machete wielding masked madman. Will they EVER learn?!

Not content to take a back seat, the latest band of Arrow reissues include HELLRAISER and HELLBOUND: HELLRAISER II, ELVIRA: MISTRESS OF THE DARK and RINGU, which will be available on 4K and Bluray. RINGU's premise is death within a week to those who view a videotape, escaping only if they persuade others to watch it! We can't say your life will be limited if you watch RINGU, but this edition IS limited, so get yours quick!

Outside of horror but equally thrilling are the Brian De Palma directed CARLITO'S WAY UHD/Bluray, starring Al Pacino and Sean Penn. An ex-convict going straight? Just try it! Action abounds in the 88 Film presentation of THE LONG ARM OF THE LAW 1 & 2, one dynamite package of Hong Kong thrill and spills, and Blue Underground's THE GIRL FROM RIO 4K/Bluray, a Jess Franco directed "Carnival of sex, violence and outrageous style!"

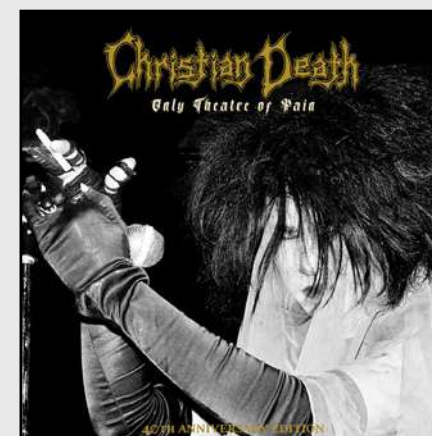

MORE HALLOWEEN NUGGETS, part two of the scarily successful first installment released last year, is released on CD with an LP pressed on Orange Vinyl! THE DUKE ROBILLARD ORGAN TRIO: SMOOTH ONE CD shows no constipation blues for the Duke, this man is prolific on guitar and organ! And Bob can barely Holz it in, as jazz drummer BOB HOLZ collaborates with legends John McLaughlin and Jean Luc-Ponty on his latest CD HOLZ-STATHIS: COLLABORATIVE.

Multi-genre master PAT BOONE celebrates his 70th (!) year in show business with the LP and CD COUNTRY JUBILEE. A truly deluxe package of 25 country tracks, Pat is joined by Lorrie Morgan, Ray Stevens, The Gatlin Brothers and Crystal Gayle. COUNTRY JUBILEE once again Mr. Boone has all genres down Pat!

Envinya - Inner Silence CD

Dark Melodic Metal from germany! mysterious and enigmatic at the same time.

Their sound is dark, hard and yet melodic and testifies to different influences. This symbiosis also gave rise to the slogan "More than Metal", which aptly describes the band's sound.

Hilario Durán & His Latin Jazz Big Band Cry Me A River

Hilario Durán brings the full scope of his artistry, the depth of knowledge of musical genres in the perfect storm of big artistry on Cry Me A River. The celebrated Cuban-Canadian composer and piano-master Hilario Durán leads his 19 piece ensemble with special guests Paquito D'Rivera & Horacio "El Negro" Hernández in a stellar big band recording - the first in 17 years.

Through the course of the album the Grammy-nominated and Juno Award-winning Durán actively throws overboard melodic, harmonic, and structural hooks that have become expressively blunted through overuse, building big band charts that bloom in color and texture and atmospheric beauty.

Durán integrates a myriad of genres into his singular style on the album - traversing innovations that have made his music uniquely breathtaking. He points to Claudia , a song he arranged while he was touring as Musical Director with Valdés, and features D'Rivera on alto saxophone, as Dizzy Gillespie's Night in Tunisia. Fantasia Impromptu is a kind of jazz-meets classical, via Brazil and Cuba, featuring D'Rivera on clarinet.

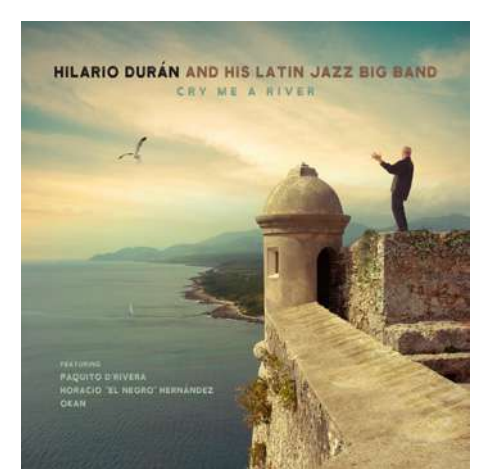

Of the title song, Cry Me A River Durán says: " Elizabeth Rodríguez is just fantastic on violin. In her solo she plays deep in the Cuban tradition and follows that with an incredible improvisation!" he says. " Pacá por Juanito is a tribute to Juanito Márquez ," Durán explains, "He was one of the greatest musicians of Cuba the conductor of Orquesta de la Radio y Televisión in the 60's. I learned how to arrange for big band, by studying his scores for that orchestra." Another original is Mambo y Tumbao . "Here, I highlight both traditional forms (mambo) and the revolutionary innovators of Cuban music - the great Bebo Valdés , who invented the 'batanga' rhythm, and the influential bandleader Pérez Prado . And of course, I Remember Mingus is a tribute to Charles Mingus , the great composer, bassist, and bandleader. Check out Marc Rogers ' solo here," Durán says enthusiastically.

Adi Braun Night And Day (The Cole Porter Songbook)

Adi Braun's love affair with the music of Cole Porter runs long and deep. The acclaimed Toronto jazz and cabaret chanteuse has long covered his tunes in her performances and on record. She describes the music of her favorite Great American Songbook writer as "delicious, a great combination of naughty, provocative, sensuous, witty and devastatingly beautiful. I am also smitten by the fact that he wrote both lyrics and music, and his use of sexy Latin beats and rhythms is another major drawing card for me."Braun's affection for the work of the masterful songwriter has now reached full bloom with Night And Day (The Cole Porter Songbook), an album comprising ten classic Cole Porter songs given vibrant new life. Her sixth full-length record, it will be released on Sept. 15, 2023 on noted Toronto independent record label, ALMA Records. Adi's most ambitious album yet, Night and Day is a collaboration with Emmy-winning Canadian keyboardist, songwriter, producer, and arranger Don Breithaupt (Monkey House, Brass Transit). The pair had long had a mutual admiration for each other's work, as Don explains. "Adi was one of the first singers to record songs by the Breithaupt Brothers, on her 2005 album The Rules Of TheGame, and I've always respected her sound, her nuance as an interpreter, and her international approach to jazz. "I contacted her in 2021, as I had a feeling I could help her cook something great. The minute we zeroed in on the Cole Porter songbook, a bottomless well of great melodies and lyrics, we had our focus." The material on Night and Dayneatly showcases the broad emotional and musical range of Cole Porter's work, as exemplified in the title. Adi explains that "I find his songs illuminate different aspects of love, in a fascinating way."The tunes Braun interprets here range from light and bubbly romps to such powerfully emotional songs as "Love For Sale" and "In The Still Of The Night."

Zanias - Chrysalis CD

Chrysalis is genre-defying, ethereal electronic art-pop as dark and evocative as it is ethereal and uplifting.

Zanias is Australian born, Berlin-based artist Alison Lewis. She creates her own brand of ethereal pop: atmospheric, multi-layered & as alien as it is authentically, vulnerably human. Her voice shifts & morphs into ghostly, alien forms blending with evocative melodies & heavy rhythmic components. Chrysalis is genre-defying electronic art-pop as dark and evocative as it is ethereal and uplifting.

"WEIRDLY INTOXICATING..."

One of Taylor's wildest performances, complete with the kind of nerve-shredding emotional pain that the beloved actress was so talented at depicting."

HiDef Digest

In what remains the most obscure, bizarre and wildly misunderstood film of her entire career - and perhaps even '70s Italian cinema - Elizabeth Taylor stars as a disturbed woman who arrives in Rome to find a city fragmented by autocratic law, leftist violence and her own increasingly unhelpful mission to find the most dangerous liaison of all. Academy Award® nominee Ian Bannen (THE OFFENCE), Mona Washbourne (THE COLLECTOR) and Andy Warhol co-star in this "unique, hallucinatory neo noir" (Cult Film Freaks) - barely released in America as THE DRIVER'S SEAT - directed by Giuseppe Patroni Griffi ('TIS PITY SHE'S A WHORE), adapted from the unnerving novella by Muriel Spark (The Prime Of Miss Jean Brodie) and featuring cinematography by three-time Oscar® winner Vittorio Storaro (APOCALYPSE NOW, THE LAST EMPEROR), now restored in 4K by Cinematheque of Bologna and Severin Films.

MONSTERS AND ROCK N' ROLL, WHAT MORE COULD YOU WANT?

The classic era of drive-in schlock was near its end in 1959, but there was still time for The Giant Gila Monster and The Killer Shrews, a pair of no-budget howlers from producer Gordon McLendon. In The Giant Gila Monster, a lizard takes on a small town. If that's not enough for you, there are plenty of cool cars and some ersatz rock 'n' roll sung by the movie's star, Don Sullivan (The Monster of Piedras Blancas). The Killer Shrews stars James Best (The Dukes of Hazard) as a riverboat pilot stuck on an island where the shrews are the size of German Shepherds. The cast includes Ken Curtis (Gunsmoke) and Ingrid Goude (Miss Universe, 1957). These two features were originally released on a double-bill. Trust us — they belong together!

GOOD CANNOT EXIST WITHOUT EVIL

Two sisters, Celeste and Isa, fall under the terrifying spell of a mysterious vinyl record from the 1970s. Used to help with stress and bring the listener to a state of calming self-hypnosis, the recording has the unfortunate side-effect of manifesting a doppelganger of the listener into our world. This "double" then grows stronger by the day to copy and take over the life of the person who played the vinyl.

Seeking the help of the woman who originally created the recording, hypnotist Lena Carlsson (Christina Lindberg, Thriller: A Cruel Picture), Celeste and Isa try to banish the doppelgangers back to their own world before their lives are lost forever.

Directed by internationally acclaimed horror master Adrian Garcia-Bogliano (Here Comes the Devil, Late Phases), Black Circle is "top-notch psychological horror with a sci-fi bent that, as a doppelganger tale, rivals the best of the remakes of, and films inspired by, the original Invasion of the Body Snatchers" (scariestthings.com).

CHRISTOPHER LEE • BERNARD MENEZ
DRACULA AND SON

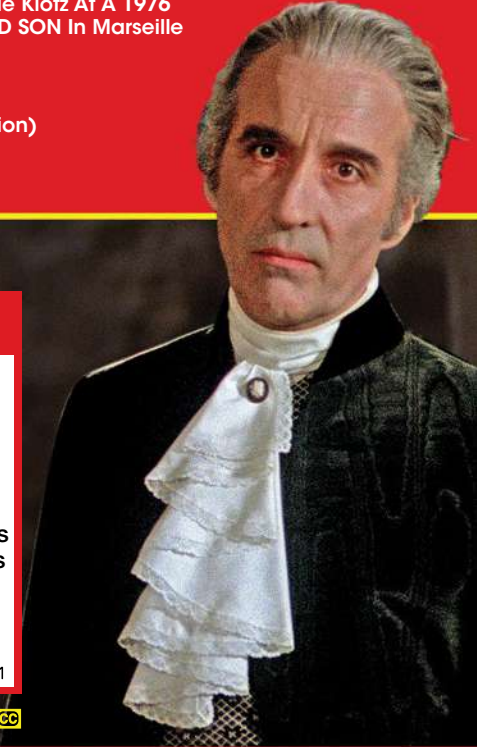

For his tenth and final screen appearance as Dracula, Christopher Lee starred – speaking fluent French – in this slyly ingenious 1976 horror comedy based on a novel by Claude Klotz (THE HAIRDRESSER'S HUSBAND) and directed by Academy Award® nominee Édouard Molinaro (LA CAGE AUX FOLLES). But when the U.S. distributor re-cut and dubbed the film into a broad parody, it was deservedly met with universal disdain. Molinaro's Director's Cut can now be experienced for the first time ever in America, lovingly restored in 4K from the original negative with both French & English audio tracks. Bernard Menez (DAY FOR NIGHT), Marie-Hélène Breillat (LAST TANGO IN PARIS) and future writer/director Catherine Breillat (ANATOMY OF HELL) co-star in this "charming satire" (The Christopher Lee Filmography) featuring a sumptuous score by Vladimir Cosma (DIVA) and loaded with vintage & new Special Features.

Italian horror master Dario Argento elevates the giallo genre to new heights with 1982's Tenebrae, a darkly humorous and notoriously grisly murder-mystery that many consider to be one of his finest works.

American mystery author Peter Neal (Anthony Franciosa, Death Wish II) comes to Rome to promote his newest novel, Tenebrae. A razor-wielding psychopath is on the loose, taunting Neal and murdering those around him in gruesome fashion just like the character in his novel. As the mystery surrounding the killings spirals out of control, Neal investigates the crimes on his own, leading to a mind-bending, genre-twisting conclusion that will leave you breathless!

Co-starring John Saxon (A Nightmare on Elm Street), Daria Nicolodi (Phenomena), John Steiner (Caligula) and featuring beautiful cinematography by Luciano Tovoli (Suspiria), this stunning all-new 4K restoration includes hours of extras.

This beautiful two-disc set (one 4K (2160p) Ultra HD Blu-ray™ + one HD (1080p) standard Blu-ray™) contains the uncut original release of Tenebrae in both Italian and English languages, along with hours of amazing extras. The 4K Ultra HD disc is encoded and mastered in Dolby Vision (HDR10 compatible).

A documentary on the life of the legendary artist Andy Warhol, an American artist, filmmaker, and producer who was a leading figure in the pop art movement of the 1960s.

Warhol's work is featured in the Andy Warhol Museum in Pittsburgh.

To this day, his art generates millions of dollars each year.

Andy Warhol was an American artist, filmmaker, and producer who was a leading figure in the pop art movement of the 1960s. He was born in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, in 1928, to Slovakian immigrants. He graduated from the Carnegie Institute of Technology with a degree in pictorial design. He explored the relationship between artistic expression, advertising, and celebrity culture in various media, including painting, silkscreening, photography, film, and sculpture. Some of his best-known works include the silkscreen paintings Campbell's Soup Cans and Marilyn Diptych, and the experimental films Empire and Chelsea Girls. He also founded three different "factories" that served as his studios and spaces for intellectual exchange, art, and sexual intrigue. He died in New York City in 1987.

Warhol's work is featured in the Andy Warhol Museum in Pittsburgh. In his will, the artist dictated that his entire estate be used to create a foundation for "the advancement of the visual arts." The Andy Warhol Foundation for the Visual Arts was established in 1987. The Andy Warhol Museum in Pittsburgh houses nearly 10,000 works of art. He directed and produced underground films as motion pictures including Chelsea Girls (1966), Eat (1963), My Hustler (1965), and Blue Movie (1969) are known for their inventive eroticism, plotless boredom, and inordinate length (up to 25 hours). Other movies include Poor Little Rich Girl (1965) and Lupe (1966), both of which featured Edie Sedgwick.
