MVD GETS IN THE GAME!

PEANUTS is celebrating its 75th Anniversary this year and MVD is a player with the release of YOU'RE A GOOD SPORT CHARLIE BROWN. Vince Guaraldi scores unique versions of classic tracks, new tracks and the unused, never before heard title track, especially for the 50th Anniversary of this TV special. Lots of reasons to celebrate! On CD and Zoetrope LP with images which jump off the vinyl that you'll get a kick out of! Pressed on environmentally sound vinyl and sped up to 45 RPM for max sound quality. This, and all the great Peanuts/Charlie Brown releases MVD distributes are winners!

Speaking of winners, Country Music Hall of Famer CHARLEY PRIDE releases ENDLESSLY: A TRIBUTE TO BROOK BENTON on CD. Recorded in the 80s but finally seeing the light of day in 2025 is this heartfelt tribute to Benton, whose music transcended genres.

G.G. ALLIN was transcended chaos as a practitioner of punk of the most chaotic variety. Evidence is this month's LP and CD of EXPOSE YOURSELF: THE SINGLE COLLECTION 1977-1991. As those familiar with GG's stage act, the closest to that is this, and this is the sh*t!

Banging around Britain in the 60s were heavy blues-based band EARTH, who went on to eventually be the band fronted by Ozzy Osbourne, and that is no BS. Wait, their initials WERE BS! Check out their origins on the CD and LP EARTH-THE LEGENDARY LOST TAPES.

Leave Earth and Meet the Robinsons in Arrow Video's 1998 remake of LOST IN SPACE on limited edition 4K. Inspired by the 60s TV show and inspiration for STAR TREK. You will be Lost in Space when you waded through all the bonus features in this limited edition! A triptych of terror is CREEPSHOW 2 on limited 4K from Arrow Video. Retains the same EC Comics flavor as the 1982 creepy original. Who knew that the raw meat of human life live under the streets of London? You will with the DVD, 4K and Blu-ray of RAW MEAT (AKA DEATH LINE) from Blue Underground! A juicy secret lies beneath! September brings a new Arrow Video 4K THE GOOD, THE BAD, THE WEIRD. A Korean Western. Yeah, that's weird.

So get in the game and see the roster of great September releases!

16volt - More Of Less (limited Edition) Vinyl

16Volt returns with More of Less--a fierce, industrial rock comeback fusing raw power, dark melody, and high-voltage emotion.

More of Less is 16Volt's long-awaited return--an industrial rock powerhouse blending punishing guitars, cinematic synths, and emotional grit. Led by Eric Powell, the album signals a bold new chapter after a seven-year hiatus, driven by the intense single "White Noise" and packed with the genre-crossing edge that made the band underground legends.

Antti Lötjönen & Kalle Kalima - Stings, Bites And Scratches Vinyl

ACT artist Kalle Kalima joins forces with award winning bassist Antti Lötjönen

Internationally recognized guitarist-composer Kalle Kalima and bassist Antti Lötjönen, one of the leading names in Finnish jazz, have joined forces and the result is a debut album bearing the name "Stings, Bites and Scratches". As the name suggests, the 44-minute record insightfully scratches the surface of free jazz, and while listening to the flow of the music, one's track of time disappears.

Bill Laurance - Lumen (Black Vinyl) (180 Gram Black Vinyl) Vinyl

Lumen is Bill Laurance's intimate solo piano album, blending composition and improvisation in a quiet, church-lit search for simplicity and depth.

Lumen is Bill Laurance's intimate solo piano album, recorded alone in a church at night. Blending composed pieces and free improvisation, it captures a sense of stillness, vulnerability, and surrender. Guided more by the music than by intent, Laurance explores simplicity and emotional depth in a space where each note feels both fragile and profound.

Blind Adam And The Federal League - The Fields We Know Vinyl

Adam and company delivering heartfelt music espousing the importance of community and interconnectedness.

What Woody Guthrie would have sounded like if he'd had electric guitars and a full band behind him. Socialist themes of community, family, and mutual aid permeate the songs on this record, as well as their everyday lives. Tireless community supporters from Chicago, but extending well beyond, they practice exactly what they preach. The perfect record for these trying times.

Return to The Realm for the new CASTLE RAT album The Bestiary!

A riff-laden compendium of mystical creatures and cautionary tales from a world forgotten, The Bestiary casts forth 13 allegorical tales of mythic creatures and the Wizard who summons them, weaving powerful heavy anthems and dark enchantments into a bewitching and unforgettable heavy metal odyssey.

Castle Rat released their debut album Into The Realm in April 2024, which has racked up over a million Spotify streams and secured the rank of #1 Best-Selling Hard Rock/All Rock Album on Bandcamp.

The band has cultivated a fiercely devoted following with riveting, interactive, lore-laden live performances complete with choreographed battle scene, swelling their legion of fans who champion swords & sorcery, stoner & doom, battle-babes & beasts, Frazetta & Sabbath.

In early 2025, Castle Rat completed a record-breaking fundraiser for their second album, fully funding it in just 37 minutes and finishing as the most successful metal Kickstarter in over a decade. Within days, the band entered the recording studio before embarking on Spring and Summer US and European tours that included numerous festival appearances like DesertFest, Hopsmoker and Hellfest.

The Bestiary, recorded by Randall Dunn (Sunn O))), Wolves in the Throne Room, Björk) and mixed by Jonathan Nuñez (Torche, Restless Spirit, Blue Heron), arrives in September 2025, and Castle Rat will support its release with a two-month tour across the US and Europe.

Also Available from King Volume Records & Blues Funeral Recordings

Will Wood & The Tapeworms - SELF-iSH [Indie Exclusive Pinwheel Neon Green With Neon Yellow Spokes With Hot Pink Splatter] (Original 2016 Mix) Vinyl

SELF-iSH is a quick but intensely dramatic concept album with dark psychedelic themes and nonstop experimental energy.

Mere months after Will Wood's debut "Everything is a Lot," producer Kevin Antreassian offered Wood a deal on his next LP. With no time to spare, Wood wove scraps of unfinished songs into an abstract concept album with prog-rock influences and psychedelic lyrics. Kevin and a new band mixed heavy metal intensity with Wood's vision, and SELF-iSH became an intense outlier in his discography.

GG Allin - Expose Yourself: The Singles Collection 1977-1991

GG Allin singles compilation reissued on vinyl.

If you had an immense amount of courage (as well as a strong stomach), then you may have been 'lucky' to have experienced G.G. Allin the way he was meant to be -- on-stage. In the studio, G.G.'s recordings more times than not did not match the fire of his live performance (and after watching some of his brutal shows on video, how could they), as they were issued on a variety of little-known indie labels, and of varying quality. One of the first compilations to truly pull tracks from throughout G.G.'s controversial career is 2004's Expose Yourself: The Singles Collection 1977-1991. A few selections have been impossible to find for years, such as the early G.G. single "Love Tunnel" b/w "Devil's Triangle," which makes its first appearance in years here. Elsewhere, you'll find tracks that have appeared elsewhere -- "Snakeman's Dance," "When I Die," "Gypsy Motherfucker," etc. -- but are among G.G.'s best. Since it touches upon most of his different eras, Expose Yourself: The Singles Collection 1977-1991 is easily one of the better G.G. comps to appear. ~ Greg Prato

Chameleons - Arctic Moon

'Arctic Moon' is the first full-length album by Chameleons since 2001, marking the return of one of the most influential bands of the 80's and 90's

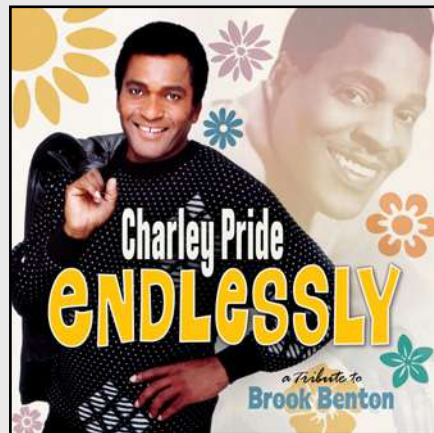

Long cited as a hugely influential act, having inspired the likes of (The) Verve, Oasis, Interpol, The Killers, Editors and White Lies, Chameleons are renowned for their transformative catalogue and intense, emotionally charged live performances, creating a legacy that extends far beyond their four studio albums to date. Their widely acclaimed debut, 'Script of the Bridge' (1983) has been cited by many as a masterpiece way ahead of its time, and was followed by 'What Does Anything Mean? Basically!' (1984), 'Strange Times' (1986) and 'Why Call It Anything?' (2001). Their unique sound quickly won them an audience with its mix of melancholic yet energetic and powerful tunes, hypnotic, ethereal riffs and a potent, timeless lyrical style. They are considered one of the most influential guitar bands of the '80s and '90s, contributing substantially to the post-punk, shoegaze and indie scenes. 2024 saw the release of two EPs that kicked off a new chapter for the band. 'Where Are You?' consisted of three new songs, while 'Tomorrow Remember Yesterday' featured five re-recorded archive tracks. 'Arctic Moon' sees them propelling forward musically while retaining the essence that originally made them iconic. 'Arctic Moon' is the first full-length album by Chameleons since the release of 'Why Call It Anything?' in 2001. "There is an obvious maturity to the songwriting on this record, and anyone familiar with our past work will hear that this is a positive step forward. While we're proud of the band's legacy, we really wanted to forge something fresh while retaining that profound and imaginative quality we're known for. We think that we have managed to do that and deliver a very strong record!" - Vox

Anja Mohr Trio - Abend CD

Discover "Abend" by Anja Mohr Trio on Intuition label. Mesmerizing piano melodies blend jazz, classical & world music.

The pianist from Hamburg breaks away from everything she knows. Anja Mohr has a rare talent for the authentic urstatement. Her debut album is one of the very few examples of music that requires no context to be enjoyed. Anja Mohr's music is ruthless in the best sense. She replaces the canon of rules for jazz with her own intuition and its historical burden with a sure sense of the zeitgeist.

Barbara Buchholz - Theremin: Russia With Love CD

Barbara Buchholz's debut album "Russia With Love" was internationally acclaimed in 2004.

If the sound of the Theremin can be compared with any other instrument, then the singing saw. It has a magical sound, and Barbara Buchholz freely admits that she is in love with that magic. "Russia With Love", of course, draws an association to the James Bond film with almost the same title. But Barbara Buchholz breaks away from the romanticism of the Cold War and brings it into the present.

Bill Laurance - Lumen CD

Lumen is Bill Laurance's intimate solo piano album, blending composition and improvisation in a quiet, church-lit search for simplicity and depth.

Lumen is Bill Laurance's intimate solo piano album, recorded alone in a church at night. Blending composed pieces and free improvisation, it captures a sense of stillness, vulnerability, and surrender. Guided more by the music than by intent, Laurance explores simplicity and emotional depth in a space where each note feels both fragile and profound.

Listen to the opening chorus of Hollywood Stampede for a prime example.

I still get a little shock of surprise and delight whenever I hear Bruce Adams and Alan Barnes doing their stuff. Bruce Adams & The Alan Barnes Quintet - Side-Steppin' CD

I remain surprised and delighted because they do it, not only amazingly well, but with such enormous relish

I still get a little shock of surprise and delight whenever I hear Bruce Adams and Alan Barnes doing their stuff. It can't be because their music is 'challenging' or 'an exciting synthesis of genres' or anything of that sort. It is perfectly clear what they are up to, which is playing bebop and its close relatives.

Bruce Adams - One Foot In The Gutter CD

But enjoyment is something that happens inside you. It isn't visible like a fashion accessory.

Bruce Adams is a masterly trumpet player in the grand manner. You don't need to attend a course of lectures in order to know what he's on about because he speaks a musical language which everybody understands and speaks it with uncommon elegance and vigour

Bunnygrunt - Action Pants! (Thirtieth Anniversary Director's Cut) CD

Expanded reissue of this classic '90s American twee-pop band's debut album / RIYL: Tullycraft, Cub

Here's a reissue of this classic American indiepop band's debut album from 1995 - and to make it even more special, it also includes the four songs sung by their original bass player, Renee, whose bitter departure caused the band to trim them from the original release. This is an excellent example of '90s American cheery twee-pop that is guaranteed to put a smile on your face!

Burlesque - Burlesque & Acupuncture CD

Re-release of the two Burlesque albums "Burlesque" and "Acupuncture" after 48 years! Lovingly remastered and available on CD for the first time

The recipe for a musical Burlesque cocktail was: a dash of punk, a dash of new wave, a dash of jazz, a dash of art rock, and finally a pinch of comedy. Now, after 48 (!) years, the band's only two albums "Burlesque" and "Acupuncture" are being released for the first time on CD, with remastered sound.

GHOSTWOMAN - Welcome to the Civilized World CD

On their 4th LP, Ghostwoman are a sharper beast than ever, offering hypnotic spells of psych-grunge, decaying Americana and ragged blues

On their 4th LP, Ghostwoman are a sharper beast than ever: Hypnotic spells of psych-grunge, decaying Americana and ragged blues make up the intuitive tracklist, with filthy guitars and snarling vocals consolidating the album's essence. Recorded on old instruments and tape, and laced with Evan Uschenko's dream grammar, the force and meaning of the record is potent - reckless, illogical and free.

Godwin Point - 3 CD

DarkAmbient / DarkWave sideproject by DAWN+DUSK ENTWINED . For fans of Cold Meat Industry and Muslingauze.

GODWIN POINT is a Dark Ambient / Dark Wave side project of DAWN+DUSK ENTWINED. The 3rd album explores territory where you'd least expect it. Nevertheless, unexpected but also familiar, continuing their re-reading of classics of the 1990s, from the golden era of Cold Meat Industry to projects like Muslingauze, with a touch of oriental sounds that smell of desert sand and machine grease.

Hallowscream 04: The House Of Horror CD

Hollowscream Volume 4, 30 scary hits for your Halloween party!

The 4th album allowed us to "unearth" rarer tracks that have not been overly reissued, and among its offerings, the novelty songs were intricately blended without "over-kill." Put on your devil toe dancing shoes, your cape of black, jump on the broomstick, or shock the neighbourhood with your fiendish faces, and most importantly engross yourself in the music that puts fun into the pagan event.

Hands To - Klangfiguren CD

Field Recordings/Noise from US pioneer Jeph Jerman. For the first time available on CD. Originally released on cassette format in 1995!

For the first time available on noble CD edition, Original released back in 1995 on tape format! „Klangfigurenn" is the perfect showcase for the talents of Hands to. Rusty scraping dance over waves of crumbling oscillations as wonderful symphonies are formed out of a seeming nothingness. Although the elements can always be traced to a concrete source (hence: musique concrete), ...

Charley Pride

ENDLESSLY

a tribute to BROOK BENTON

THE LEGACY OF BROOK BENTON

An incredibly versatile singer, gifted songwriter and superb entertainer with little interest in being pigeonholed into a particular genre, Brook Benton exploded on the pop music scene in 1959 with "It's Just a Matter of Time" and then notched an enviable string of thirty (30) Top-40 R&B hits, including several major pop crossover hits and Top-10 pop duets with Dinah Washington.

Following a mid-to-late 1960s drought of major hit singles while recording for the RCA Records and Reprise Records labels, Brook signed with Cotillion Records, a new subsidiary label of Atlantic Records, where his comeback during the early 1970s netted five (5) additional Top-40 R&B hits, including the massive Top-5 pop crossover success of "Rainy Night in Georgia."

ABOUT CHARLEY PRIDE

A true music legend and trailblazer, Charley Pride enjoyed one of the most successful careers in the history of country music and helped to break color barriers when he became the first black superstar within the genre. An inductee into the Country Music Hall of Fame (in 2000) and proud member of the Grand Ole Opry, Pride sold tens of millions of records worldwide and toured regularly on an international basis with an extraordinary repertoire of hits.

A three-time GRAMMY® Award winner and 2017 GRAMMY® "Lifetime Achievement Award" recipient, Pride garnered no less than forty-three (43) chart-topping US country hits, including "All I Have To Offer You Is Me", "Is Anybody Goin' To San Antonio", "Mississippi Cotton Picking Delta Town" and "Kiss An Angel Good Mornin'", the massive #1 crossover hit that sold over a million singles and helped him land the Country Music Association's (CMA) "Entertainer of the Year" award in 1971 and "Top Male Vocalist" awards of 1971 and 1972.

Surprisingly vigorous and the picture of good health at 86 years of age, Pride had intended to continue performing and recording for as long as his voice would allow. But sadly he fell ill in late November 2020 and passed away on December 12, 2020 due to complications from COVID-19, barely a month after an unplanned final curtain call at the CMA Awards where he was honored with the CMA's "Lifetime Achievement Award."

September 19, 2025 marks the 94th anniversary of Brook Benton's birth!

Brimming with vintage country, R & B and pop music sounds, this long-lost, retro-sonic homage to legendary singer/songwriter Brook Benton clearly demonstrates that Charley Pride's versatility as an artist extended well beyond the confines of country music.

Originally recorded during a brief mid-1980s interlude between his RCA Records and 16th Avenue Records recording contracts this previously unreleased, full-length album displays Pride flexing newfound artistic freedom on productions that sound notably different than his 1970s/1980s country music output.

Unlike Pride's prior RCA Records catalog which was largely recorded by Nashville "A-Team" musicians operating within Music City's lucrative assembly-line studio system, these Brook Benton tribute recording sessions all took place in Pride's adopted home base of Dallas, TX. And as good fortune would have it, they feature an impressive array of world-class musicians who proudly called North Texas home during the mid-1980s, including legendary bassist Chuck Rainey (Steely Dan, Aretha Franklin, Quincy Jones), drummer/percussionist Gene Glover (Ricardo Arjona), jazz pianist Fred Crane (Al Belletto, Johnnie Mercer, Al Hirt, Doc Severinsen), guitarist Jerry Matheny (LeAnn Rimes) and Texas Western Swing Hall of Fame inductee Billy Briggs Jr. (Bob Wills) on sax.

Pride's co-producer, engineer Bob Pickering (Nitzinger, Thunder, Bloodrock), also charted some lush string arrangements for the project that were tracked by a first-rate ensemble of orchestral strings led by violinist, conductor and music educator Anshel Brusilow (Dallas Symphony Orchestra, Philadelphia Orchestra, Chamber Symphony of Philadelphia, New Orleans Symphony).

Previously lost and then rediscovered in 2017, the original multi-track masters were mixed and mastered under the late Bob Pickering's supervision following Pride's death. Other than digitally transferring, mixing and mastering the original performances, virtually no other post-production has been applied—no instrumentation has been added and no trendy artificial intelligence has been used to modify or enhance Charley's vocals or the recordings in any way.

This release will be supported by an Americana radio and press promotional campaign during September 2025 and beyond.

John Morgan & Bill Stromberg - The Lost Skeleton Returns Again (Original Motion Picture Soundtrack) CD

The Lost Skeleton of Cadavra is a 2001 American independent science-fiction parody, spoofing the style of B-movies released during the 1950s.

The Lost Skeleton of Cadavra is a science-fiction parody film directed by Larry Blamire. The film is a spoof of B-movies released during the 1950s. The original score to the film was composed by William T. Stromberg and John Morgan, who were strong aficionados of 50s and 60s science-fiction horror films and brought that sensibility to the original score written for this motion picture

Kaabi Kouyate - Tribute To Kandia CD

Kaabi Kouyate, son of the great griot of Guinea, Kandia Sory Kouyate, dedicates this tribute to his father and his repertoire of Mandinka epic songs.

Sory Kandia Kouyaté (1933-1977) was "The Voice" of independent Guinea. It is to this baobab of Guinean song that one of his sons, Kaabi Kouyaté dedicates this tribute. The most fascinating thing about this album is Kaabi's voice, whose timbre, modulations and inflections, and the felicity of his DNA, echo so hauntingly those of Guinea's most famous griot.

MUD MORGANFIELD DEEP MUD

AVAILABLE IN CD AND LIMITED EDITION VINYL FORMATS

The eldest son of the immortal Muddy Waters, Mud has followed in his beloved dad's mammoth footsteps, staunchly keeping the traditional Chicago blues flame alight by faithfully singing Muddy's songs as well as plenty of his own originals in front of an all-star band of local heavy-hitters. He sauntered onto the main stage at the 2025 Chicago Blues Festival to belt his father's "I'm Your Hoochie Coochie Man" as one of the main cogs in a gala celebration of Chess Records' 75th anniversary, looking and sounding every bit the heir to Muddy's gilded throne.

Everything in Mud's musical life traces directly back to his father. "Dad played the most important role with my being. He shared an affair with my mother, and they had me!" he says. "I was born in the blues, man. I used to have to tap music on the side of my head before I went to sleep. I've had music running through my being all my life, since I've been here."

As Mud grew up, his father was there to help his offspring in any and all of his musical endeavors. "I started out as a drummer," says Mud. "I'd get a set of drums from Dad--first the little paper ones. I had to let this music out some way. Then I would tear them up, and then a couple of weeks later he'd get me another pair. And he finally got me a real set with some tougher skins. You know, just starting off an amateur, I would bust the snare on that. And one day, when I was about 16 years old, I went to an Earth, Wind & Fire concert and saw Verdine White playing bass, and that did it. I put the drums down, and I've been playing the bass secretly at least 30-something years now."

Mud didn't emerge musically until the 2000s when veteran blues chanteuse Mary Lane gave him some of his earliest showcases on the West Side. His debut album was released in 2008. A three-time Blues Music Award nominee, his 2014 Severn Records release in collaboration with harmonica ace Kim Wilson, 'For Pops-A Tribute to Muddy Waters,' earned him the coveted award.

Silke Eberhard Quartett - Mohnmarzipan CD

Silke Eberhard belongs to a new generation of Berlin-based Jazz musicians, who are attempting to form an idiom between reflection and change.

On „mohnmarzipan“, Silke Eberhard finds a logical connection between all of the various elements of her own development and the collective self-discovery within German Jazz, which she rejects and accepts. She first had to conquer her own personal experience as the muscle-flexing sax-maniac, in order to find a more conciliatory place in her music.

Steve MacClean - Universal CD

9 pieces that form a sci fi suite of whole-scene cues - in wide-screen, with movie-sound depth - on a wide canvas feat. action, robots, space & more.

Steve MacClean's Universal (2023) is a 9-piece sci-fi suite. It's a wide-screen, cinematic journey thru action, space, galaxy formation, & sleep. MacClean blends acoustic (Team Real), electronic (Team Circuits), and unconventional (Team Third Body) sounds, showcasing his uniquely broad structural ideas with deep sonic detail, making it an enigmatic, sublime listen for the sonically curious.

The BC Combo Featuring Bev Conklin - Glass Half Full CD

A myriad of powerful emotions from frustration to revelation are delivered on this collection of music with a message from this veteran musical unit.

A myriad of powerful emotions from frustration to revelation are delivered on this collection of music with a message, covering suicide loss, surviving as a musician, memorable influences or simply seeing the world from different vantages. The loss of 33 year co-writer and bandleader Wayne Smith's brother kindled this offering to express his thoughts musically with the band as his vessel.

The Philadelphia Labels Hits Collection 1957-62 Vol. 1: Swan, Chancellor & Guyden CD

Just about every track in this 91-track 3- CD set was a Top 100 or Hot 100 chart entry

Philadelphia was a hugely active, powerful and influential city in the pop music of the late 1950s and early '60s, partly reflecting the creative and commercial energy of the Italian-American community there. A number of successful independent record companies were established there, which mostly had one or two highly successful acts and a number of lesser-known ones, who also had hits.

Tipitina - I Wish I Was In New Orleans CD

Tipitina have convinced me that they're definitely on to something. Don't go changing, guys.

The case against eclecticism and versatility is broadly speaking that if you get good at too many things you'll fail in the creation of an individual voice, and so you'll never establish a unique identity; in other words, you'll be a jack-of-all-trades, master of none. After all, isn't there good evidence throughout the world of entertainment

Will Wood & The Tape Worms - SELF-iSH [Indie Exclusive] (Original 2016 Mix) CD

SELF-iSH is a quick but intensely dramatic concept album with dark psychedelic themes and nonstop experimental energy.

Mere months after Will Wood's debut "Everything is a Lot," producer Kevin Antreassian offered Wood a deal on his next LP. With no time to spare, Wood wove scraps of unfinished songs into an abstract concept album with prog-rock influences and psychedelic lyrics. Kevin and a new band mixed heavy metal intensity with Wood's vision, and SELF-iSH became an intense outlier in his discography.

FROM THE DIRECTOR OF HOUSE (1977)

"His Motorbike, Her Island is a hidden gem of Japanese cinema, offering a unique blend of romance, drama, and fantasy. If you enjoy unusual, artistic films with a touch of magic, this one's definitely worth a watch." —Simkl.com

Following a painful breakup, macho biker Koh (Riki Takeuchi) skips town and hits the road on his beloved Kawasaki W3 650. On his countryside excursion, he encounters the free-spirited Miyo (Kiwako Harada, older sister of Obayashi favorite Tomoyo Harada) who quickly takes interest in both the leather-clad Koh and his motorbike. Koh and Miyo fall in love even as Miyo's prodigious biking talent and thrill-seeking tendencies heighten Koh's fear that she may push it all too far. A nostalgia-filled reminiscence, Nobuhiko Obayashi's monochromatic dream playfully worships the biker culture of yesteryear, delivering a sentimental and liberating take on young love.

Beneath Modern London Lives a Tribe of Once Humans. Neither Men nor Women... They are the Raw Meat of the Human Race!

When a prominent politician and a beautiful young woman vanish inside a London subway station, Scotland Yard's Inspector Calhoun (Donald Pleasence of HALLOWEEN) investigates and makes a horrifying discovery. Not only did a group of 19th century tunnel workers survive a cave-in, but they lived for years in a secret underground enclave by consuming the flesh of their own dead. Now the lone descendant of this grisly tribe has surfaced, prowling the streets for fresh victims... and a new mate.

ALL HALLOWS' EVE I N F E R N O

FROM AN EXECUTIVE PRODUCER OF TERRIFIER 2
ALL HALLOWS' EVE
I N F E R N O

THE HORROR LEGEND CONTINUES

From an executive producer of Terrifier 2 comes All Hallows Eve: Inferno, a new installment of the franchise that first introduced the world to Damien Leone's Art the Clown and the short film Terrifier.

When a woman survives a horrific crash that leaves her paralyzed, her nightmare is far from over. Transported to an infernal hospital, she becomes the victim of a sadistic doctor's torturous experiments forcing her to enter a haunted dimension filled with monsters and mayhem.

A COLLECTION OF THREE HORROR MOVIES
FEATURING STORIES THAT FOCUS ON VISUAL STORYTELLING, WITH MINIMUM DIALOGUE.

THE TAMING OF ANDREA is the most recent of the three, starring Andrea Hall as a woman who is kicked out by her boyfriend. A stranger sees her crying and offers her lodging on his boat. Thus begins her ordeal. THE CRUCIFIER is the story of a man who suddenly becomes psychotic at a party and attacks his friends, killing the males and holding the women captive. The voices in his head validate his delusions, making him confident that his murderous plans have a solid moral basis. Suzi Lorraine stars as one of the victims. NIGHTMARE OF THE SCHIZOPHRENIC is the most atmospheric of the three movies in which a man who suffers delusions of grandeur believes that he sees reincarnations of people who betrayed him in a past life when he was a demigod. Now, trapped in the body of a mere mortal, he must take revenge in the most sinister way possible; to kill the women whom his enemies love.

Hotel

A film crew in a Venetian hotel unravels amid eerie secrets, power struggles, & surreal chaos in this experimental thriller from director Mike Figgis.

From Academy Award-nominated director Mike Figgis (Leaving Las Vegas, Timecode) comes HOTEL, a bold and hypnotic exploration of power, voyeurism, and the surreal underbelly of the film industry.

In a mysterious Venetian hotel, a British film crew arrives to shoot a period drama about the infamous Duchess of Malfi. But as the cameras roll, strange and sinister events unfold behind the scenes. The director (Rhys Ifans) wrestles with an unruly cast, including the enigmatic leading lady (Saffron Burrows, Deep Blue Sea) and a fiery actress (Salma Hayek, Desperado), while hotel staff harbor their own eerie secrets. Meanwhile, a documentary crew, led by a brash American journalist (David Schwimmer, "Friends"), captures the chaos--unaware that a much darker story is being written beneath the surface.

Filmed in an innovative, split-screen digital style and infused with black comedy, horror, and surreal intrigue, Hotel is an unpredictable cinematic experiment where nothing is quite as it seems. Featuring an all-star ensemble cast, including John Malkovich (Con Air), Lucy Liu (Kill Bill), Burt Reynolds (Boogie Nights) and Julian Sands (Warlock), this provocative thriller invites you to check in... if you dare.

SALES POINTS

- All star cast includes Saffron Burrows (Deep Blue Sea), Salma Hayek (Frida), Rhys Ifans (Notting Hill), David Schwimmer (Six Days, Seven Nights), Lucy Liu (Kill Bill: Vol. 1), John Malkovich (Con Air), Julian Sands (Warlock), Jason Isaacs (Harry Potter)
- From Academy Award Nominated director Mike Figgis (Leaving Las Vegas, Miss Julie)
