Right up front, if these were lost tapes they should have stayed that way. This might be an all right purchase for the diehard Yardbirds collector, but the unwary average DVD purchaser thinking that this will be pristine quality video hits will be sorely disappointed.

Wikipedia

The Yardbirds are an English rock band that had a string of hits in the mid 1960s, including "For Your Love", "Over Under Sideways Down" and "Heart Full of Soul". The group is notable for having started the careers of three of rock's most famous guitarists: Eric Clapton, Jeff Beck, and Jimmy Page...

The bulk of the band's most successful self-written songs came from bassist/producer Paul Samwell-Smith who, with singer/harmonica player Keith Relf, drummer Jim McCarty and rhythm guitarist/bassist Chris Dreja, constituted the core of the group.

The Tracklisting for the DVD is as follows;

- 1.Train Kept A Rollin'
2.Shapes Of Things
3.Dazed And Confused (Yes, the future Led Zeppelin mammoth started life here)
4.For Your Love
5.Goodnight Sweet Josephine
6.Over Under Sideways Down
7.Louise (audio is terribly muffled)
8.I'm A Man (Cut off before the end of the song)
9.Hang On Sloopy (This video is almost unwatchable except for close ups, and the audio is horrible)
10.I Wish You Would (Sound Is Terrible)
11.Heart Full Of Soul (Video quality is horrible)
12.Happenings Ten Years Time Ago

I wish that someday, someone will get it right, and release The Yardbirds concert videos in remastered quality and sound. I would surely buy it. This DVD however, is not going to win anyone over at all. 3/10.
