Got Wrinkles?

Wrinkles, fine lines, skin discoloration, dark spots? People have tried everything from skin chemical peels, collagen treatments, injections and laser treatments but many are costly and have painful side effects, or just don't work. Now you can finally reduce wrinkles and fine lines, skin discoloration and dark spots and just have younger looking skin – safely and painlessly with NuBrilliance.

What is NuBrilliance?

NuBrilliance is a breakthrough technology that uses actual real diamonds to give you smooth, clearer looking skin. NuBrilliance uses microdermabrasion technology – recognized as one of the most effective, professional techniques in the market today. Microdermabrasion has been successfully used in clinics, doctor's offices and spas, with machines costing over $15,000 and visits running from $150 - $200 per treatment. NuBrilliance is a safe and effective at-home version of those expensive professional systems.

"My skin is smoother and softer, and all my friends keep telling me how great I look." — E.E. 62, New York

Dr. Matthew Schulman,

NYC Plastic Surgeon
(Mount Sinai Medical Center and School of Medicine)

"NuBrilliance is an at home version of the microdermabrasion machine that I use on my patients...to remove the outer layers of skin cells and stimulate new skin."

- Reduction in fine lines and wrinkles.
- Improvement in texture, skin tone & elasticity.
- Reduction of skin discoloration, dark spots and scarring.
- Reduction of pigment irregularity and acne.
- Reduction in lines around the eye.
- Smoother looking skin.

How Does NuBrilliance Work?

NuBrilliance features a dual action system that was exclusively available at doctor's offices and clinics...until now. Other microdermabrasion systems use harsh and often harmful crystal abrasives that can get embedded in the skin, inhaled or ingested.

NuBrilliance uses gentle crystal free technology. It's Real Diamond Wand Tip™ safely exfoliates dead and flaking cells on the skin surface, revealing fresh, clearer skin beneath. Vacuum Stimulation promotes collagen production to reduce the appearance of fine lines and wrinkles. Simply apply the Diamond Tip Wand to the surface of your skin and NuBrilliance safely and painlessly works to give you younger looking skin.

Clinically Tested, Safe & Effective

NuBrilliance was put to the test...and the results were loud and clear. NuBrilliance was used by clinical trial patients twice weekly for six weeks. Every patient reported high satisfaction in overall results and ease of use. The clinical results speak for themselves.

The clinical study also stated that it's safe, easy to use, quiet and portable.

Guaranteed Results.

We are so sure that you are going to love NuBrilliance, that we are offering a $14.95 trial offer. Use it for 30 days and if you don't see amazing results for yourself, just return it no questions asked. For less than the price of a single doctor's visit or spa, you can actually own your own treatment system to start recapturing the precious look of youthful skin.

COFFEE NO CURE FOR A HANGOVER

SUFFERING from a nasty case of the morning after the night before? Put the coffee pot DOWN — new research shows a jolt of java will just stop you from realizing you're still drunk!

A steaming cup of coffee has long been part of the classic hangover cure, but scientists at Temple University in Pennsylvania have discovered that while caffeine makes us more alert, it only masks the effects of yesterday's overindulgence.

In fact, a mug of joe — or any other caffeinated beverage — not only fails to sober you up, but it makes it harder for you to grasp that you're still intoxicated.

"The myth about coffee's sobering powers is particularly important to debunk because the co-use of caffeine and alcohol could actually lead to poor decisions with disastrous outcomes," says Thomas Gould, who led the study.

"People who feel tired and intoxicated after consuming alcohol may be more likely to acknowledge that they are drunk."
