The Story of The Yardbirds - New DVD

News entry published on 19 December 2008 / Last modified on 19 December 2008

A new DVD documentary has been released in the United States covering The Yardbirds' career from 1963 - 1968. Released by MVD Visual, "The Story of The Yardbirds" features interviews with band members and associates, archival footage and bonus material.

Eric Clapton's tenure with the band is highlighted in live performance footage ("Louise" and "I Wish You Would") from 1964. There is lots of footage of Jeff Beck and Jimmy Page as well.

Some songs featured in the DVD include:

I'm A Man
Heart Full of Soul
Still I'm Sad
Train Kept A Rolling
Over Under Sideways Down
Shapes of Things
Happening Ten Years Ago

The bonus material is Jimmy Page performing live in Germany in 1964.

Running time is 67 minutes.
