RAMONE, DEE DEE - HISTORY ON MY ARMS: This is Lech Kowalski's 2003 documentary HEY IS DEE DEE HOME - about the life and times of Ramones bassist and all-star burn out, Dee Dee Ramone (1952-2002) - with new bonus short films History on My Arms and Vom In Paris (each clocking in at just under half an hour) plus a bonus CD. HISTORY ON MY ARMS captures Dee Dee's extraordinary personality in a way that has never been done before. Kowalski was struck by how playful and direct he was with the camera. How he wanted to connect with something inside of himself and expose his true nature.

CORYELL, LARRY - EARTHQUAKE AT THE AVALON

Earthquake at the Avalon features guitar legend Larry Coryell in an special and unique concert, recorded at The Avalon, CA in October 2005. Superbly backed by The Souls Dirge Band (Bernard "Pretty" Burdie - Drums, John Hart - Bass, Winston Byrd - Trumpets, his son Julien Coryell - Guitar/Keyboards and David Hidalgo of Los Lobos), captures Coryell's progressive style of play, which primarily fused the ideas of rock and jazz into one intense and funky entity.

IRON BUTTERFLY - CONCERT AND DOCUMENTARY

This DVD features the band performing during their European tour in 1997 including three original members; vocalist and keyboardist Doug Ingle, Drummer Ron Bushy and bassist Lee Dorman. The band run through a well received set which includes In A Gadda Da Vida as a highlight and proving it to be as potent as it was when it was first unleashed on the public in 1968. The DVD also includes a bonus interview and includes contributions from Doug Ingle, Lee Dorman, Ron Bushy and also Steve Howe who talks about the time Yes supported Iron Butterfly at London's Albert Hall.
