Ana Popovic Live DVD Coming

Thursday October 14, 2010

With five acclaimed albums under her belt, Yugoslavian-born blues-rock guitarist Ana Popovic has thrilled audiences worldwide with her explosive, exhilarating six-string blend of blues, rock, jazz, and funk. Along the way, she's earned the respect of several old-school bluesmen, opening for, or performing with folks like Junior Wells, Bernard Allison, and Kennedy Neal...and she's not even 35 years old yet!

On December 7, 2010 ArtisteXclusive will be releasing An Evening At Trasimeno Lake: Live From The Heart Of Italy, Popovic's second concert DVD. Filmed at a stately medieval Italian castle during the tour for Popovic's 2009 album Blind For Love, the six-camera shoot captures the talented guitarist and her eight-piece band performing for over two hours in front of an audience of better than 5,000 enthusiastic fans.

Popovic's first concert DVD, 2005's Ana!, earned her four Living Blues Award nominations, including "Best Live Performer" and "Best Blues DVD." During a career that has spanned less than a decade, Popovic has racked up an impressive string of awards and nominations, including France's prestigious award for jazz, the guitarist receiving the Jazz A Juan Revelations at Juan Les Pines, France in 2003. As Popovic and her band launch another world tour in 2011, there is no doubt that An Evening At Trasimeno Lake will help further raise her profile and win the artist some new fans.
