4] CANNABIS iPhone APP

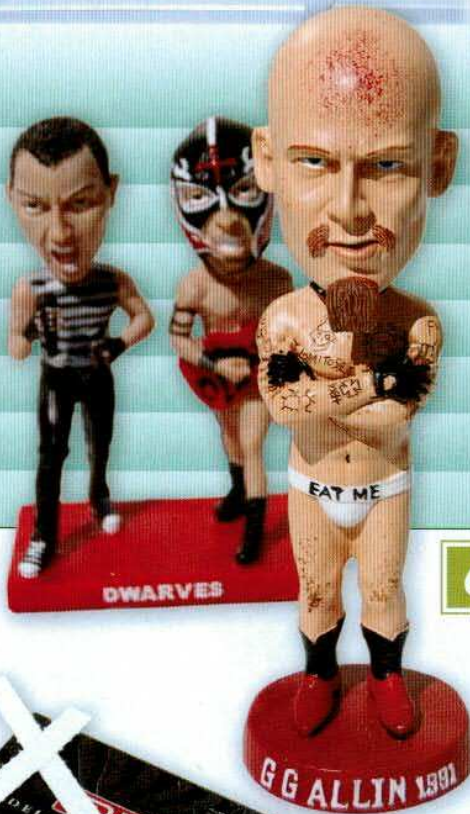

Apple recently approved the Cannabis Application from Ajnag for the app store in iTunes. It is a GPS based application for the iPhone that allows medical marijuana patients to find cannabis-friendly doctors, lawyers, I.D centers as well as the nearest med dispensary with just a few taps of the screen. If you own an iPhone and are a medical marijuana patient, this app is a must, you never know when you are going to forget your meds or be in need of some edibles. Props to the developers. $2.99

5] POT LEAF WALLPAPER FOR WINDOWS

Talk about taking advantage of a window of opportunity! The decorative pot leaf allows those who are proud of their 4:20 affiliation to showcase it through these quite classy-looking, I guess you could say window covers. It's like tinting your home. Just apply to wet glass, removing the film from the backing paper, smooth it out and BAM... instant wallpaper for windows. It's a heckuva lot more subtle than the gigantic pot flag you have streaming from your TV antenna up on the roof. Available in a variety of sizes and in other designs as well, but obviously this one caught our eye. $24.95 and up. www.wallpaperforwindows.com

6] PUNK ROCK BOBBLEHEADS

Normally this kind of thing wouldn't fly here, but these were just too wicked to pass up. These incredibly well-crafted statuettes are extremely intricate in their details, accurately portraying such punk-rawk cultural figures like GG Allin and The Dwarves to a T. Not your standard pieces of plastic (like your typical present day punk rocker), these bobble-babies are fragile and are only available in a very limited quantity. Look out for the Tesco Vee figure as well. GG Allin - $14.95, Dwarves - $19.95. www.aggronautix.com

7] DLX DELUXE ROLLING TIPS

Quality rolling papers have a tendency to lose their pizzazz if there's no quality rolling tips to go along with 'em. Granted, many smokers prefer not to use tips, so clearly this product isn't designed with them in mind. (or maybe they were, who am I to judge?) But for those of us who like a little stability at the end of our J, DLX's got you covered. Coming in packs of 60, each tip measures a quarter-inch wide - the perfect size to not be a burden. www.dlxsmoking.com
