

POP! CULT

Sweet stuff. Stat.

AGGRONAUTIX Joe "Shithead" Keithley Throbblehead ($16.95; aggronautix.com)

The frontman for Canadian hardcore legends D.O.A. has been given the official "throbblehead" treatment, thanks to the fine people over at Aggronautix. Dressed in his trademark sleeveless jean jacket and sporting a defiant stance, pick up the rendering of Joe "Shithead" Keithley now, then headband alongside it to D.O.A.'s Talk - Action = Zero reissue, out now.

LOVE AT FIRST BITE The Complete Vampire Lover's Cookbook ($12.95; adamsmedia.com)

Riding the ever-popular undead wave, Michelle Roy Kelly and Andrew Norville have developed a cookbook for those who love all things that suck blood. With more than 300 recipes (from appetizers to desserts and everything in between), plus party theme ideas and complete menu suggestions, your next Twilight viewing soiree is sure to be the bloodiest—in a good way.

BLUE Q I Heart Money Coin Purse ($3.99; blueq.com)

Keep all your coins and small items together at Warped Tour this summer with Blue Q's adorable "I Heart Money" coin purse. Not only will you be making a statement about the recession, but the purse—which features an adorable cartoon raccoon—is made of 95 percent recycled post-consumer material. It's a great way to be financially and environmentally responsible at the same time.

HELLO REWIND Recycled Tee Laptop Sleeve ($49; hellorwind.com)

Got a stack of old concert tees that no longer fit, but you can't bear to part with them because of the musical memories? Hello Rewind can help you out. Simply send them your fave tee, along with the dimensions of your laptop, and they'll send you back a customized laptop sleeve. Protecting your valuable electronics has never been more nostalgic. The only drawback? These babies take four to eight weeks to ship. But good things come to those who wait.

BOOK BEGS

Tired of scrolling? Try flippin' a page for a change.

THE MUSICIAN'S GUIDE TO LICENSING MUSIC; Darren Wilsey with Daylle Deanna Schwartz

($19.99; watsonguptill.com)
Desperate to get your band's newest single in an episode of the Gossip Girl or in the newest edition of Madden NFL? This handy guide provides the most current information on the who, what, when, where and how of getting your music played in everything from films and TV shows to ads and ring tones.

THE BOY WHO COULDN'T SLEEP AND NEVER HAD TO; DC Pierson

($14; vintagebooks.com)
As if being a teenager isn't hard enough, try being a teenager who never sleeps. Ever. In this wacky and hilarious coming-of-age novel, music meets film meets comic books meets video games meets government conspiracies, all with the backdrop of figuring out high school relationships, family drama and social hierarchies.

HOW TO PLAY HARMONICA AND OTHER LIFE LESSONS; Sam Barry ($9.99; gibbs-smith.com)

Not only does this pocket book instruct you on playing harmonica, it also serves up lessons on relearning how to "play" (like the kind of playing you did as a little kid). The whimsical life lessons tied into music theory is a handy reminder to not take life so seriously all the time.

LEAN ON PETE; Willy Vlautin

($13.99; harperperennial.com)
What happens when the people who are supposed to protect and raise you aren't available anymore and your "childhood innocence" is lost? That's the theme Willy Vlautin explores in his novel about a teenage boy who journeys across the country in search of his only known relative. Life lessons wrapped up in road trip stories often resonate, and Lean On Pete is no exception.