What better way to celebrate Wendy O. Williams' 61st birthday on May 28 (if she hadn't blown her head off at age 48) than with a cute, scantily clad bobblehead doll.

Yes, Aggronautix, the company that, in 2009, presented a bobblehead of GG Allin -- the lovable now-deceased counter culture character who beat up audience members, pooped onstage and threw his feces at the crowd -- is about to launch their limited edition line (2,000 in total) of W.O.W. dolls and to promote the item, anyone who pre-orders the "Throbblehead" through the end of May has the chance to win a prize pack that includes a Plasmatics Coup d'Etat: Revolutionary Rock 'N' Roll T-Shirt, The Plasmatics Wendy O Williams 'Beyond The Valley Of 1984' on vinyl and "Wendy O. Williams The Plasmatics The DVD: 10 Years Of Revolutionary Rock & Roll."

The Wendy O. Williams bobblehead is modeled after the punk icon circa 1982 -- replete with blonde mohawk, spiked arm bands and tattered threads -- stands at seven inches tall and is made of a lightweight polyresin and costs $16.95. The doll comes encased in a tri-window box and if she could talk, she'd surely shout, "Let me out of here you f---ing sh-- eating scumbag!"
