

<http://www.spinner.com/2010/11/03/holiday-shopping-guides-rock-music-fans/>

Spinner's Holiday Shopping Guide

Posted by Pat Pemberton

Comments \(1\)

Like Be the first of your friends to like this.

Holiday gift giving is so much easier when the recipient is a music fan. Otherwise, you just can't be sure if he or she is going to be into that Santa snow globe you picked up at the drug store with time running out. Of course, you can always buy actual music, but your significant other probably already has that Arcade Fire album by now. Besides, there's more to music than tuneage; it's a pop culture treasure trove. With that in mind, here are 25 music-related gift ideas that will rock that special someone's world.

06 | Keith Morris Throblehead $19.95

It's not often you get an eff-you stare from a novelty item. But this is punk rock novelty, man -- so effing deal with it. Here the stare comes from the former Black Flag/Circle Jerks and current OFF! frontman Keith Morris (or, at least, the 7-inch version of him), who points to his dreadlocked head while in full rock-out pose.

Buy the Keith Morris Throblehead

Pat Schumacher