Electric Eden is the 2-CD set providing the soundtrack for Rob Young's acclaimed book of the same name, which examines the history of music-making in the British Isles.

With selections handpicked by the author himself – including choice cuts from Fairport Convention, Pentangle, Bill Fay, John Martyn and Comus – this compilation maps out a native British musical voice with a veritable connoisseur as your guide. We've three copies of this delicious double-disc set up for grabs. To win one just successfully complete the crossword grid

BAKE SALE

WIN ONLINE!

Visit the Record Collector website at www.recordcollectormag.com to see our online competitions page!

Chicagoan purveyors of post-jazz lounge pop The Sea And Cake are back with a brilliant new set, Runner. Breezy melodies, tight-ass syncopations and Sam Prekop's adorably dulcet vocals make for the perfect post-Olympic Indian summer listening experience.

Thanks to those fine folks at Thrill Jockey we've three vinyl copies to give away. For this one, we want you to send us your favourite cake recipe (a picture of the finished goods couldn't hurt either). Our favourite three bakes win a copy of the album.

JERK OFF

Formed by ex-members of Black Flag and Redd Kross back in 1979, Circle Jerks went on to become one of the most celebrated bands to emerge from California's hardcore punk scene.

In My Career As A Jerk, David Markey combines interviews, live footage and historical perspectives to tell the group's tale. We've three copies of this engaging documentary to give away, and we'll even throw in a doll of ex-Jerk vocalist and general punk legend Keith Morris as well. To win a DVD and doll just give us the name of the band Morris now fronts.
