Well this is one bobblehead I must have. Lucio Fulci's Zombie is my all-time favorite walking dead flick and it features one of the most excruciating scenes in the history of horror movies: the big fucking splinter in the eyeball scene. Oh man.

I love the movie's tagline: "We are going to eat you!"

Get your zombie right here.

Because I know you want to see it, here's the big fucking splinter in the eyeball scene (You might want to put down that sandwich).
