

Black History Month

VB Purchasing Guide

Man on Fire

The Rosa Parks Story

When the Levees Broke: A Requiem in Four Acts

Martin: The Complete First Season

HONORING HISTORY

Here are some titles and promotions appropriate for February's celebration.

ARTMATTAN/FACETS

Otomo Drama by Frieder Schlaich that speculates on the real-life event concerning the death of an African refugee in modern-day Germany, in German with English subtitles. Street Nov. 28, prebook now; DVD $29.95

BCI/NAVARRE

Ron Van Clief Collection Contains Way of the Black Dragon, in which Van Clief and Carter Wang star as a pair of martial-arts troubleshooters, and Death of Bruce Lee (Black Dragon's Revenge), which looks at the speculation over Lee's death. Street Dec. 26, prebook Nov. 14; DVD $14.98

CINEMA LIBRE

Darfur Diaries: Message From

Home This film provides an opportunity for the marginalized victims of atrocities to speak and engage the world. Street Nov. 7, prebook now; DVD $19.95

CODEBLACK/VIVENDI

Playas Ball Romantic thriller featuring a cast of TV, film and NBA stars. Street Feb. 6, prebook Jan. 8; DVD $19.99

ECLECTIC/MVD

What We Want, What We Believe: Black Panther Party Library Documentary featuring three films on the Black Panther party with additional footage and interviews. Street Nov. 21, prebook now; four-disc set $37.95

FIRST RUN

Been Rich All My Life The Silver Belles, five tap dancers who performed in '30s Harlem, discuss the history they made during the Harlem Renaissance. Street Nov. 21, prebook now; DVD $24.95

Fox

Black History Month Promotion: Black Knight (DVD $9.98) A theme park worker is sent back in time to do battle with an evil king; Antwone Fisher (DVD $14.98) Denzel Washington stars as a young boy who is sent to a mental institution after being beaten by his father. continued on page 18

