MALEVOLENT CREATION/Live At The Whiskey A Go Go (Artic Music Group) This band has been around for quite awhile now and they may not have been my favorite band, but they have more than delivered the goods for quite some time. The band sound tight and play all the tunes on this with fury and this is the way death metal needs to be. Fast, nasty, powerful and no jump metal crap or tough guy vocals. This is pure death metal all the way. Band still can deliver the goods and this live CD proves it again. Info:
