THROW RAG "2nd Place" "Tee Tot"

Two killer releases from California kings of sleaze Throw Rag! "2nd Place" is a collection of brand new tunes, along with new versions of a few old favorites like "Bag Of Glue" & "Hollywood", plus a dead on cover of the Gears classic "Don't Be Afraid To Pogo". Like a shot each of the Gun Club, Supersuckers & Smut Peddlers, this is a perfect document of the seedy side of the L.A. underground. "Tee Tot" is a reissue of the band's self released debut LP & features more of a roots rock approach, but is still demented & twisted in it's own right. Cool document of Throw Rag's early days. You can't lose with either of these discs, but "2nd Place" is the band's best release to date. (Www.acetate.com) JRM
