MAD JUANA "Bruja On The Corner"

Gypsy punk? Voodoo glam? Cajun rock? Mad Juana is all of the above & then some! Led by ex Hanoi Rocks & NY Dolls bass player Sami Yelfa & femme fatale singer Karmen Guy (who bears more than a passing resemblance to Patti Smith), Mad Juana are one of the more original & intriguing bands to come down the pike in some time. With horns, accordion, violin & assorted oddball percussion, combined with Karmen's sultry & powerful vocals, this is like a soundtrack for some sort of a psychotic swamp circus. If you crave something different, this will fit the bill. Mad juana come from a different dimension altogether! (Www.acetate.com) JRM
