Rhino Bucket – The Hardest Town

Rhino Bucket – The Hardest Town CD (Acetate)

Stop what you're doing for a second, and breathe deeply. Can you smell it? Beer. Smoke hanging heavy in the air. The tar on the road bubbling and starting to melt. And a faint undercurrent of high octane on the wrong side of its combustion cycle. In other words, a perfect summer day. And what do you need on a perfect summer day? You need the perfect soundtrack... and that's been supplied by Rhino Bucket, folks—like Bon Scott era AC/DC meets George Thorogood with a dose of early 80s US hard rock thrown in for the sheer hell of it. Window down, stereo cranked high, and foot mashed down hard on the accelerator. Hell yeah! Tim Mass Movement
