

STRUTTER'ZINE

RHINO BUCKET 'THE HARDEST TOWN' (ACETATE RECORDS/INDEPENDENT MUSIC MEDIA)

The early 90s saw a revival of AC/DC in the shape of 'Money talks' and 'Thundestruck', which also led to a lot of soundalike bands being signed to major labels and DIRTY LOOKS, SMACK, KINGS OF THE SUN, KIX and such are good examples, but also RHINO BUCKET had a brief success during that period. After 3 albums they split up in the mid 1990s, but in the 2000s a successful comeback in the shape of live shows and new CDs gave them a second chance and now they release their latest CD 'The hardest town'. Without a doubt, the sound is AC/DC/KROKUS/AIRBOURNE/KIX/HELIX/ FASTWAY orientated, so raw to the bone straight-ahead real Hardrock. 11 songs are included and backed up by the label ACETATE RECORDS, it all looks and sounds very professional, so this is a must-have for all fans of AC/DC soundalike kinda bands. More info at: <http://www.myspace.com/rhinobucketmusic>

(Points: 8.2 out of 10)