Superbees, The – Top Of The Rocks

Superbees, The – Top Of The Rocks CD (Acetate/MVD)

The Superbees are back! Rejoice, oh ye faithful, in whatever manner suits you best, and get ready to have your mind blown and your entire body beaten senseless by the most explosive garage rawk band on the planet as they do what they do best. The Superbees dance a fine line between MC5 and The Hellcopters, between the early, skuzzy British Invasion sound and that drug-fueled, Johnny Thunders influenced sound that we love so much. Anyone old and wise enough to know and understand that Aerosmith were a hard-hitting and dangerous band back in the early 70s will rejoice at the fantastic cover of 'S.O.S. (Too Bad)' here, with Dave James' snarl so reminiscent of the young Steven Tyler that you may have to check your music playback device a few times during the song to make sure you aren't actually rocking an 8-track copy of the original. Guests include Jake Cavalier (Lords Of Altamont, The Fuzztones) and Cody Chestnutt (who just rules, people... look it up). 1-2-3-4... buy or die. The Impaler
