SHO BUZ

by Ed Held Studio News

Fist Fight

Warner Bros.

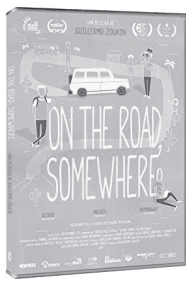

The Chalmette Robichaux family is back in the cinema news with the release of the smash hit comedy Fist Fight, which is all about two comical high school teachers who rumble in the school yard! Van Robichaux III, son of parish attorney Van Robichaux is very proud of his son's work in "Fist Fight." Ice Cube ("Barbershop: The Next Cut," the "Ride Along" movies) and Charlie Day ("Horrible Bosses," "It's Always Sunny in Philadelphia") star as high school teachers prepared to solve their differences the hard way in this comedy directed by Richie Keen ("It's Always Sunny in Philadelphia"). Keen directed Van's screenplay that was also co-authored by Evan Susser (Funny or Die's "What's Going On? With Mike Mitchell"), and the comedy was developed from their original story along with a third writer named Max Greenfield. Clever creative writing turns an ordinary school day into a circus! On the last day of the year, mild-mannered high school English teacher Andy Campbell (Day) is trying his best to keep it together amidst senior pranks, a dysfunctional administration and budget cuts that put jobs on the line. But things go from bad to worse when he accidentally crosses his much tougher and deeply feared colleague, Ron Strickland (Ice Cube), who challenges Campbell to an old-fashioned throw down after school. News of the fight spreads like wildfire and ends up becoming the very thing this school, and Campbell, needed. I personally thought it was a really funny movie in which Ice Cube and Charlie worked the material very well together. I did find that the characters and action were a bit over-the-top, plus the students were intentionally unruly and that allows you to laugh at all the gags and inanity. Special Features: - Georgia Film Commission, - Deleted Scenes and Includes UltraViolet so you can enjoy the film on many different compatible devices.

On The Road, Somewhere

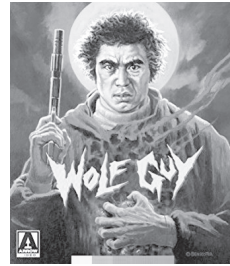

Indie Pix Films

Get ready for a terrific coming-of-age roadtrip from the Dominican Republic called On The Road, Somewhere. Politics, pop culture and national identity emerge among three best friends, Oliver, Moises and Hemingway, who embark on one last carefree Summer road trip, just before college, when the first steps into adulthood will begin and everything they know will change. Set in the exotic locale of Santo Domingo and featuring the Feature Debut of filmmaker Guillermo Zouain! He is also the director, screenwriter, and producer. His debut feature film On The Road, Somewhere premiered in 2015 in the Ibero-American Opera Prima Competition at the Miami International Film Festival, which also competed for the Jordan Alexander Ressler Screenwriting Award at MIFF. Guillermo is now working on the production of Tales Of Penthouse, a documentary awarded with the 2015 Ibermedia development fund. This is a drama in Spanish with English Subtitles.

Wolf Guy

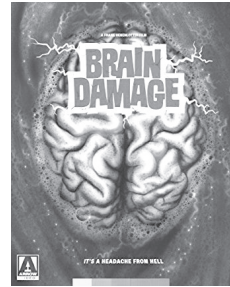

Arrow Films

Get ready to take your valium as the horror cult film Wolf Guy (Blu-ray 2-Disc Special Edition) arrives to tantalize your fears! Shinichi 'Sonny' Chiba is a martial arts "manimal" in the ultra-70's, 100% bizarre mixture of horror, action and sci-fi that is Wolf Guy, one of the rarest and most sought-after cult films produced by Japan's Toei Studio. Based on a manga by Kazumasa Hirai (creator of 8 Man), and never before released outside of Japan, it's a genre film classic waiting to be discovered and a completely unclassifiable trip into phantasmagoric funk. Chiba stars as Akira Inugami, the only survivor of a clan of ancient werewolves who relies on his supernatural powers to solve mysterious crimes. After a series of bloody killings perpetrated by an unseen force, Inugami uncovers a conspiracy involving a murdered cabaret singer, corrupt politicians, and a plot by the J-CIA to harvest his blood in order to steal his lycanthropic powers! At the same time, Inugami also discovers the truth behind his family heritage, and that he may not be the last of his kind. Extras: High Definition digital transfer, High Definition Blu-ray (1080p) and Standard Definition DVD presentations, Original uncompressed mono audio, New optional English subtitle translation, New video interview with actor Sonny Chiba, New video interview with director Kazuhiko Yamaguchi, New video interview with producer Tatsu Yoshida, and Reversible sleeve featuring original and newly commissioned artwork by Wes Benscoter! In addition, includes info on Director B-movie genius Kazuhiko Yamaguchi (Sister Streetfighter, Wandering Ginza Butterfly, Karate Bear Fighter), Wolf Guy truly is one-of-a-kind, with Chiba in full effect as the part-man, part-wolf, all-karate action hero and a collection of familiar 1970's Toei actors in support. Violence, action, nudity, real surgical footage, and a psychedelic musical score all work together to create an unforgettable trip to the heights of Japanese cinematic weirdness. Don't say I didn't warn you!

Brain Damage

Arrow Films

Get ready for a headache from hell as you spin Brain Damage (2-Disc Special Edition Blu-ray + DVD). From Frank Henenlotter, the man behind such cult horror favorites as Basket Case and Frankenhooker, comes Brain Damage the ultimate head-trip, refurbished in HD! Meet Elmer. He's your local, friendly parasite with the ability to induce euphoric hallucinations in his hosts. But these LSD-like trips come with a hefty price tag. When young Brian comes under Elmer's addictive spell, it's not long before he finds himself scouring the city streets in search of his parasite's preferred food source brains! WOW. What a plot! Featuring late TV horror host John Zacherley as the voice of Elmer, Brain Damage boasts some of the most astonishing bad taste gore-gags ever realized, including the notorious brain-pulling sequence and another that let's just say ends with a distinctly unconventional "climax." It's Henenlotter's masterpiece of comical chemical addiction and insane cranial bloodshed filled with the added scenes and gore that's still amazing after 25-years and you will now understand the metaphor behind the film which is now intact! Special edition contents: Digital transfer from original film elements, High Definition Blu-ray (1080p) and Standard Definition DVD presentations, Original Mono audio (uncompressed PCM on the Blu-ray), Optional English subtitles for the deaf and hard of hearing, Brand new audio commentary by writer-director Frank Henenlotter, Brand new interviews with cast and crew, Q&A with Henenlotter recorded at the 2016 Offscreen Film Festival and includes Original Theatrical Trailer plus a Reversible sleeve featuring original and newly commissioned artwork by Sara Deck!
