Arrow Films is proud to announce the Home Video and TVOD release of

A GHOST WAITS

BEETLEJUICE meets GHOST in debut director Adam Stovall's remarkable supernatural comedy romance featuring an absolutely brilliant performance from headliner MacLeod Andrews, star of THE SIREN.

Jack's job is to fix up the house. Spectral agent Muriel's eternal task is to haunt it. They should be enemies, but they become fascinated by one another and eventually smitten, leading them to question everything about their work, lives, and decisions.

But as pressure mounts for them to fulfil their duties, something's got to give for the time together they both so desperately want.

Don't miss the supernatural rom-com that critics are hailing as "haunting" as "unexpectedly heartfelt."
