Gareth Emery – The Podcast Annual 2007

Baroque

The original podcaster goes annual.

Just 18-months old, the Gareth Emery podcast has become required listening for the discriminating prog/trance adherent. Flipping the bird at gated synths and exaggerated strings, the 'Podcast Annual 2007' focuses more on the margins of the genres.

Tapping up underground talent like Andy Moor, David West and My Digital Enemy, CD1 offers a super-fluid, prog-inspired mix. CD2 crosses the tracks, kicking off with Kyau & Albert's neo-trance anthem 'Always A Fool'. From there it hits one home run after another with the likes of Ricky Fobis' 'Nobody', MORPH & Rank 1's compilation fave 'Life Less Ordinary' and Tocadisco's mix of Boosta's 'Dance Is Dead'. Tim Stark

Mint track: Albert Vorne 'Formentera What'
