COMPILATION OF THE MONTH

Gareth Emery: The Podcast Annual 2007

BAROQUE

Latest comp from the 34th biggest DJ in the world!

SADLY, GARETH 'Look You' Emery hails from Southampton, scuppering a whole raft of Welsh jokes we originally had planned. Owner of Five AM Records, Gareth has produced some of the biggest trancers of the last couple of years, and launched his fortnightly podcast in March 2006. It quickly reached iTunes' Worldwide Top 20 list and was nominated for Best Podcast at the Miami WMC, up against Pete Tong and Roger Sanchez. This success inspired 'The Podcast Annual 2007', a mix of current tunes, club hits and exclusives. CD1 takes in funky sounds from Iman, tech-house from Noel Sanger and upmarket prog from Andy Moor vs Orkidea. CD2 is for the techier fans, with no tinkly euphoria, just pure, bass-driven tracks.
