PR Silence Ca Tue! aka Silence We Are Shooting! on DVD Sep 22

BrinkDVD

Silence Ca Tue! aka Silence We Are Shooting!, is a film that critics have called "The Modern Equivalent of Man Bites Dog" and "A Radical Piece of Guerrilla Cinema!" Christophe LaMont is a filmmaker that has had enough of the movie financing industry in Belgium. In his disgust he decides to make a movie without a script, without any money, and without regard for human life. Soon everyone becomes a target in a film in which no director, no producer, and even his own film crew aren't safe!

When Cinema becomes too real, a director goes too far!

A Silence Ca Tue! AKA Silence We Are Shooting

The controversial critically acclaimed film that has been Banned in France and Belgium is now being released for the first time in the U.S. on DVD Sept. 22nd!

NEW YORK, NY, --Silence Ca Tue! aka Silence We Are Shooting!, is a film that critics have called "The Modern Equivalent of Man Bites Dog" and "A Radical Piece of Guerrilla Cinema!" Christophe LaMont is a filmmaker that has had enough of the movie financing industry in Belgium. In his disgust he decides to make a movie without a script, without any money, and without regard for human life. Soon everyone becomes a target in a film in which no director, no producer, and even his own film crew aren't safe! A Silence Ca Tue! is a movie that mixes dark humor with over the top violence, and takes filmmaking to a shockingly final step. This critically acclaimed controversial Belgian film is now making its way to the U.S. for the first time on DVD. In a film that is sure to become an instant cult classic, and no filmmaker will be safe!

A young director disgusted by the financing system of the movie industry decides to shoot a feature movie made from live scenes without any financial support in order to denounce the difficulties to achieve a cinematographic project in Belgium. The rivalries between the cast members, the excesses and the frustrations will slowly lead him to a surrealistic disaster.
