B SEEN MEDIA

JIM NORTON/No Baby For You: It seems like satellite radio has created a better venue for comedy than cable tv did 30 years ago. With satellite and podcasting bringing so much democracy to the dissemination of comedy, it has made the comics more competitive and given the marketplace greater diversity. A hysterical bad boy with a penchant for bitch slapping anyone and everyone, Norton's street level humor aims low and hit's the target with each track. This cat isn't afraid to shine a light on life's underbelly and invite you to hoot at it with him. Not for the puritanical but a good bet for everyone else.
