

What Are You
Doing
Here?:
A Black Woman's Life
and Liberation
in Heavy Metal
by Laina
Dawes

Feedback

Props

Tuesday
May142013

Craving - Craving

TUESDAY, MAY 14, 2013 AT 7:43PM

Craving are a new melodic Death/Black Metal band, looking to hit the scene, with their debut full length CD Craving, in a big way. If you're a fan of high octane tunes ala early In Flames and Children of Bodom then this may be your band. Though they are heavier than In Flames, they have that early sound. As with many bands in this genre, the vocals are inaudible for the most part, and it doesn't help that the lyrics are a mix of English, Russian and German, but does it really matter? The music is phenomenal and very catchy. The songs offer a nice blend of melody and brutality, which will captivate the listener. I have to say, it was the guitar solos that pushed me over the edge, with this band. Guitarist Thorsten Flecken is melodic and very tasteful in his solos. A solid release from start to finish, that will grow on you with each listen.

Bottom Line: A CD that may not grasp your ear buds, on the fist listen, but after a few spins, you'll be sold.

Solid melodic death with lots of twists.

Standout Tracks: Ein Funken Abendrot, In the Forest, The Blowing Wind and The Nameless

Ragman is craving pizza, but why?

RAGMAN IN CD REVIEWS | POST A COMMENT

View Printer Friendly Version

Email Article to Friend
Reader Comments

There are no comments for this journal entry. To create a new comment, use the form below.