Eerie Von, the former Sam Hain & Danzig bassist, re-released his solo records recently, & on this one, much like his other solo records, Eerie plays ALL instruments, & the end result is a low-fi product that's most modern punk music played in a sludgy kinda way...the music does have a pop element, but Eerie's vocals are too doomy feeling to ever be considered pop! "A Cage Is A Cage" could be the role model for every song on this cd...the entire disc is a moving machine of art & horror, dark & darker, weird & weirder! As a complete piece, the cd, the artwork, the music...it all completes itself, makes for a whole piece of art, & there's nothing on this disc that will ever be played on the radio, but what I respect about this cd is that it's all real, no pro-tools, nothing sounds fake on here & it is what it is!
