

THE REASONING/Awakening (MVD-Comet Music) Oh after the first 10 seconds this brought a smile to my face. What a riff and what killer vocals. This is rock with a prog edge and almost darkside to it too. The band just sucked me in with the riffs and vocals and this just smoked me. They remind me of GTR a bit if anybody remembers them. This had melody, good singing and playing and is still heavy enough for those who want metal to be into this. Info:
