Track of the Day: Heavyweight Champion

By Jennifer Maerz in MP3 of the Day

Friday, May. 15 2009 @ 3:48PM

A little local funk for your Friday: Heavyweight Dub Champion, who take their status as emcees as a spiritual quest pretty seriously. The group is about to release a new record, Rise of the Champion Nation--an album focusing on personal liberation through higher consciousness. This track, "Dawn," is a good example of how this crew shifts effortlessly between reggae, hip-hop, funk, and atmospheric electronica--with an ongoing message of uplift coursing through the song.
