DETENTE/History 1 (Cognitive Records) I don't have much info on as when this stuff was recorded, but let me tell you it is quite the slab of thrash metal.

This is breath taking to my ears. Dawn Crosby is sadly missed and she had a unique voice at it shows on this as she sings these tunes with a passion and fury not matched by many. The riffs of Mike Carlino are out of this world and they just force the head to bang as they are so damn catchy and heavy to boot. I assume this is some old demo stuff maybe mixed in with some newer unreleased stuff. All I know this is something you need in your collection asap. This crushes. Info:
