

VARIOUS ARTISTS - Look At All the Love We Found DVD (Music Video Distributors)

I was actually surprised by this DVD. I mean, it's a tribute to Sublime, the alterno-skapunk band that infuriated many a purist back in the early 1990s. This is a sold-out concert filmed in October of 2005, and was a tribute show (where proceeds went to hurricane relief) based on the high-selling CD of the same name, where bands covered Sublime tracks. Disc one is the concert DVD where you'll find bands from every style of music covering Sublime numbers. Appearing are Los Lobos (world rock), Blackalicious (hip hop), Unwritten Law (pop punk), Ozomatli (rap-rock) and Fishbone (ska). Disc one also has extras like music videos (Fishbone), photo slideshow and backstage interviews. Disc two is a CD which contains many of the tracks from the concert, as well as many previously unreleased studio tracks from The Banned (with Public Enemy's Chuck D), Dr. Israel, Mystic Roots and Brain Failure. Over an hour of watching and an extra half-hour of listening, so you could ask for much more. (Sept 05, 2006)
