Look At All The Love We Found LIVE:

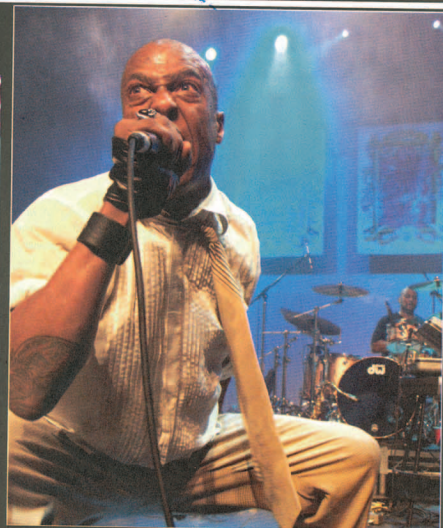

A Tribute To SUBLIME

Last summer, the Look At All The Love We Found CD was released and sold over 100,000 copies. That's good, but was merely a ripple in the water compared to what would take place just a few months later. The Music Box at Ford Theater played host to a sold-out benefit concert to honor and celebrate the legacy of one of the more influential bands of the '90s and raise money for MusiCares/MAP Fund and the MusiCares Hurricane Relief Fund. The show raised over $25,000 and was a night you'll never forget.

What's that you say? You weren't there? Well, neither were we, but thankfully now you can experience all the performances, interviews and behind-the-scenes footage of the rehearsals. Look At All The Love We Found LIVE: A Tribute To SUBLIME, is now available through the folks at MVD and Cornerstone RAS (www.mvdb2b.com). This 60-minute DVD (which includes a 35-minute bonus CD) retails for a mere $19.95 through MVD's Web site. Artists like Los Lobos, Ozomatli, Fishbone and The Ziggens are just some of the groups featured. The unbelievable renditions of SUBLIME's hits should not be missed. The Ziggens performing "Paddle Out" (who better, right?); Los Lobos performing "Pawn Shop"; Ozomatli with "Saturday Night," and a wild rendition of "Date Rape" by Fishbone. And, wait until you see the jam session with many of the artists, including surprise guests Stephen Perkins (Jane's Addiction), Ikey Owens (Long Beach Dub Allstars) Eric Wilson and OG SUBLIME member, Bud. The CD features some never before heard SUBLIME hits and fan faves. Get to the Web site and get yours now!
