BLOOD SWEAT & TEARS - "SPINNING WHEEL" - DVD

The horn-based band was launched in the '60s. This is a 1980 U.K. performance by vocalist David Clayton-Thomas, who had formed a new version of the group. They display topnotch musicianship and Clayton- Thomas is at his bluesy best. The disc, which runs an hour, features such classics as "God Bless The Child" and "Hi De Ho," as well as a medley of other hits and a sampling from their '80 album "Nuclear Blues."
