DVD: PAT TRAVERS Boom-Boom: Live At The Diamond

Rating: 8 Out Of 10 - Reviewed by Bam-Bam

It's about time someone decided to document this great guitarist's career with some of the best tunes in his catalog. The show takes place in Toronto during his 1990 tour and includes such barnstormers as "Snortin' Whiskey", "Daddy Long Legs", "Heat In The Street", "Ready Or Not", "Boom Boom", and "Born Under A Bad Sign". Travers is in great form on all his solos and even extends the hell out of a few of them to show some updated tricks to the original versions. Backed with a band that just shreds their asses off, this DVD is a must-have for anyone who is a fan of great, blues based, Rock-N-Roll guitar playing. Better than average sound quality and decent video (not enough cameras to catch all the angles in my opinion, but it doesn't take away from the overall feel of the show) makes this a tad bit pricey for the $19.95 Retail, but still something that I feel fans of Travers will find necessary. Fifteen tracks total, done in 5.1 Surround Sound and clocking in at just over an hour, Live At The Diamond is nice bit of history captured forever.
