

MONTGOMERY BAR ASSOCIATION PRESENTS
COURTING ART
WHAT I LOVE ABOUT MONTGOMERY COUNTY
A FREE JURIED ART EXHIBITION, FEATURING ORIGINAL WORK BY MONTGOMERY COUNTY ARTISTS (Ages 55+)
THE FINE ARTS CENTER at MONTGOMERY COUNTY COMMUNITY COLLEGE | BLUE BELL | FRI. MAY 10 & MON. MAY 13 | 10 AM - 5 PM

ONE COUNTRY, TWO WARS, EIGHT STORIES
American Homecomings
CLICK HERE

Wednesday, May 08, 2013

Login | Register

Pottstown, PA
61° L/RAIN
Dental Laser Treatment Center

THE MERCURY
Serving Pottstown, PA and The Tri County area..
American Homecomings Search The Mercury SEARCH

Home | News | Business | Entertainment | Sports | Obits | Opinion | Life | Health | Video | Cars | Jobs | Real Estate | Marketplace

Entertainment » News & Gossip »

'The Impossible' gives a clear-eyed look at power of family

By Amy Longsdorf
Journal Register News Service

Posted: Sunday, 04/28/13 12:01 am

Like 0

'Any Day Now' (2012, Music Box, R, $25) Inspired by a true story, this 1970s-set drama pits a gay couple (Alan Cumming, Garret Dillahunt) who are raising an adopted Down syndrome son (Isaac Leyva) against a biased legal system claiming they're unfit parents.

'Save The Date' (2012, IFC, R, $25) Cartoonist Sarah (Lizzy Caplan) doesn't like commitments, so when her indie-rocker boyfriend Kevin (Geoffrey Arend) proposes, she goes running the other way. She winds up dating Jonathan (Mark Webber), a grad student who's even more sensitive and mopey than Kevin was.

'Wuthering Heights' (2012, Oscilloscope, R, $30) Director Andrea Arnold, who brought so much energy and authenticity to 'Fish Tank,' stumbles with her adaptation of the Emily Bronte classic. Her mistakes are many and include casting novices in the roles of Heathcliff and Cathy, draining the drama of much of its dialogue, and employing cinematography so dark its hard to see what's going on.

'Mr. Selfridge' (2013, PBS, unrated, $50) If you're still missing 'Downton Abbey,' check out this Masterpiece mini-series which brings to life the story of American entrepreneur Harry Gordon Selfridge (Jeremy Piven), the forward-thinking founder of Selfridges, London's first department store.

'Jurassic Park 3D' (1993, Universal, PG-13, $50) If ever a movie called out for a 3D conversion, it's Steven Spielberg's dino epic about a handful of people (Laura Dern, Sam Neill, Jeff Goldblum, Joseph Mazzello, Ariana Richards) trying to survive the prehistoric predators who've taken over a remote island near Costa Rica.

'Last Shop Standing' (2012, MVD, unrated, $20) Timed to coincide with Record Store Day on April 20, this British documentary traces the rise and fall and rebirth (thanks to vinyl) of the indie record shop. Filmmaker Graham Jones' blames the demise of the stores not only on the digital revolution but also on big box chains selling CDs at cost.

ADVERTISEMENT

Spring it on! Save 15% on flowers & gifts
Shop Now
1800flowers.com Let us arrange a smile for you.

SOCIAL WIRE

Happening Now in Pottstown

News

NewsHour @NewsHour

Gregory Hicks, deputy chief of mission in Tripoli, Libya, testifies on #Benghazi attack at 11:30 am ET. Watch here: http://t.co/1YSmTGCP3D

11m

Heavy rain overspreads area; thunderstorm possible

Heavy rain overspread the area during the latter part of Wednesday morning's commute. Look for

15m

Times Herald @TimesHeraldPA

Changes to NASD 2013-14 budget discussed http://t.co/6Gi0ITDTR9

Today's editorial: Pa. slots revenue fails to address property tax burden.

http://t.co/Zf0JlQ7jQ9

Writer, editor @MercuryX in Pottstown, Pa.;

powered by Crowdnews

FULL SCREEN

SPECIAL PROMOTIONS

HEROIN: FATAL ADDICTION

2013 SPRING DINING GUIDE

2013 Camp Guide

MADE IN PENNSYLVANIA ESTABLISHED 1787 PENNSYLVANIA PROUD

sold Beatles records. Extras: additional interviews.

"Never Let Me Go"(1953, Warner Archive, unrated, $22) Director Delmer Daves, who scripted the swoony "An Affair to Remember" and directed the action-heavy "3:10 To Yuma," combines his talents for romance and suspense with this exciting Cold War thriller about a newspaperman (Clark Gable) who risks his life to smuggle his ballerina wife (Gene Tierney) out of Russia. The first half is all slow-burn tension as Gable and Tierney fall in love and work towards securing an exit visa. The second half, which details the daring rescue mission, is a marvel of controlled intensity. Daves delivers the goods. Extras: none.

Prev 1 2 3 Next See Full Story

Like

Add New Comment

Required: Please login below to comment.

VIDEOS

More Videos >

Today's Promotion

Lower Pottsgrove DUI crash sends two to hospital

Ri... inges sought by Limerick nuke plant likely to be approved

Man arrested for growing pot at New Hanover candidates home

UPDATED: Norco fire deemed 'accidental' (video)

Lower Pottsgrove woman admits to deceit in public housing assistance benefits scam

ArtFusion show will commemorate end of Vietnam War

Classic cars out in style for Pottstown Nostalgia Nights opener

VIDEO: Duryea Downhill kicks off Gravity East series

Lower Pottsgrove: Spilled nails cause traffic issue

Drumheller to be sworn in as Pottstown police chief Wednesday

Official: West Pottsgrove murder victim was shot in the back

Fallen officer Brad Fox honored by Pa. House (video)

Few primary challenges on Berks County ballots

Sly Fox Goat Race: A new three-legged champion

Montco man jailed for robbing Upper Pottsgrove bank

Showing 0 comments

Sort by Newest first

Real-time updating is paused

NEXT ARTICLE IN ENTERTAINMENT

Age no obstacle for vintage Iggy & The Stooges

» Continue to article...

ADVERTISEMENT

Bizarre "sacred" book could hold key to curing all disease. Secret discovery inside...

Norristown : New trick allows Pennsylvania drivers to get auto insurance as low as $9 a week.

Pastor says he turned his father's $40,000 retirement into $396,000 by flipping this 'Obama blunder'

The ugly side of snoring & how you can stop it tonight...

MOST POPULAR

UPDATED: Norco fire deemed 'accidental' (video)

3

Man arrested for pot-growing operation found at New Hanover candidate's home

0

Official: West Pottsgrove murder victim was shot in the back

3

Wednesday's Sound Off

0

MOST COMMENTED

MOST SHARED