

Artist/ Band: Gordon Haskell
 Title: The Road To Harry's Bar (DVD)
 Label: MVD
 Year of Release: 2005
Artist/ Band Link (click for details/ ordering)

The Review:

Okay before I get to far, I will be the first to admit my only knowledge of Gordon Haskell is that he's ex-King Crimson. While that may be true in many ways, he's not an EX anything. He's Gordon Haskell, singer song writer storyteller. After watching the interview portion, I became more enlightened to what the man and musician, Gordon is all about. It was an eye opener to hear that he doesn't have fond memories of his time in King Crimson. In fact he says it was a mistake but a mistake that had to be done to be where he is now.

Fast forward to now with Gordon's first DVD release The Road To Harry's Bar. The music is unlike what I've heard Gordon do before, which makes me want to explore his solo music more. The music that Gordon does on this dvd is a sophisticated adult "Jazz-Pop". The dvd concert is a 18-song performance and proof that unlike most from his era, he stays true to his musical convictions. Since his musical beginnings in 1966, Haskell survived his ups and downs by doing things his way. The performance on this DVD shows this perfectly. The main show was recorded on June 28th 2005, in Katowice, at Teatr im. St. Wyspianskiego (Wyspianski Theater). The extras on the dvd are the aforementioned interview and music videos.

I would recommend this DVD to the true music connoisseur and not the casual fan.

While the music isn't complex, it is unlike anything done in many years.... it's actually music from the heart and soul.

Reviewed by Ron Fuchs on February 21st, 2006

Tracks:

1. Nature Boy
2. Voodoo Dance
3. All The Time In The World
4. When The Cookie Jar Is Empty
5. A Little Help From You
6. Livin' It Up
7. Freeway To Her Dreams
8. The Other Side
9. Bwana He No Home
10. All In The Scheme Of Things
11. Go Tell Sarah
12. Al Capone
13. Antonio's Song
14. How Wonderful You Are
15. Love Won't Let Me Wait
16. All Dressed Up And Nowhere To Go
17. Someone I Knew
17. Ain't No Sunshine

BONUS LIVE VIDEO: You Can't Hold A Good Man Down

BONUS VIDEO CLIPS: How Wonderful You Are, When The Cookie Jar Is Empty, The Lady Wants To Know

Contact Us Back

Copyright © 1998-2006, ProgNaut.com, All Rights Reserved.