

LEFUTRAY - CHILE

November 6, 2012

Last Breath – 2011 - Digmetalworld

Members

S= Arsenal>>JUAN VEJAR>>Arsenal

G= Caos>>LEONARDO GACITUA – CRISTIAN OLIVARES

B= CRISTIAN BRAVO

D= YONATTAN MUNOZ

History

This Chilean band was formed in 2005 as a modern thrash act. There was a demo called First EP in 2006. The band's first vocalist was Pablo Bascunan. Alonso Ramirez followed. A full-length demo called Frente Al Fin came in 2008. The 2011 full-length was called Last Breath.

The band's name is taken from a word in the Mapudungun (a native Chilean people) language meaning 'fast sound.'

Reviews

LEFUTRAY – LAST BREATH – DIGMETAL WORLD/MVD 70/100

Lefutray is a completely unknown band to me that nonetheless managed to turn my head (bobbing up and down to the fury) with its pounding extreme metal. The group has an unremitting aggressiveness in its songs and a singer that can match the level of savagery. The repertoire is not as powerful owing to the lack of guitar leads that shred and add to the thrashy madness, but a couple do make an appearance, which sounds like primitive '80s solos. Those are in Agreement of Suffering, Through Your Veins and Screaming In Silence. Lefutray is somewhere between Sepultura and late '80s Death. Who else thinks calling an album 'Last Breath' is counterproductive? – Anna Tergel

Interviews