

dagger

11/27/06 (DVDs):

BAD RELIGION- THE RIOT –MVD- This is the 3rd Bad Religion dvd I now own...they're all good. This gig took place on Dec. 29th, 1990 at the El Portal Theatre in Los Angeles. I guess this gig has been a bit legendary and been known as the "riot" gig since that is what scores of punks did when the show had to be cut short. This was a few years after the legendary SUFFER record (my favorite by them) and you get to hear B.R. classics from that era such as "You are the Government", "Land of Competition", "How Much is Enough" and the song that got me into B.R. back in the early 80's, "We're Only Gonna Die (from our own arrogance)." The sound quality is good (not great) and the picture quality is good (right in front of bassist Jay Bentley with plenty of good shots of Mr. Brett and Graffin and even Greg Hetson off a bit in the distance ....drummer is obscured) and it's funny to see Bentley with the cheesy moustache and Hetson with his long , curly hair. The band is one fire and I really wish I would have seen them during this era ( I have caught them a few times in the 00's and they're still a great live band) . Extras include some footage from other performances. ( www.musicvideodistributors.com )