

OLIVER LAWSON SAXON 'ROCK HAS LANDED, IT'S ALIVE DVD'
(DEADLINE RECORDS/MUSIC VIDEO DISTRIBUTORS)

I don't honestly know what to think of this, because the original SAXON members have continued under this name for quite some time now, but fail to impress, especially since they feature the average once SHY lead singer JOHN WARD. He absolutely does no justice to the original SAXON classics, which can only be sung by the one and only BIFF BYFORD, who also tours as SAXON each year. Anyway, the DVD of OLIVER LAWSON SAXON only lasts about 65 minutes, during which they do not make any impression, so I am afraid the featured concert from 4 years ago is only for die-hard fans nice to watch, otherwise better check out the real BIFF BYFORD fronted SAXON! Nevertheless, the ending of the DVD is kinda cool, as they seem to behave like MOTLEY CRUE or MANOWAR backstage with a bunch of naked girls walking in the dressing room and that's something us normal guys always dream about!
