

MIXTAPE DVD DOONKADOONKS

Compiled by Elliot Aronow, Eric Ducker and Seth Porges

DVD YOU'LL NE... makers David Thor... films spent seven y... documentary that... MIC5 were, as Tho... Unfortunately, ... isn't one of f... ed foreshadowe... gnition and aft... on the Stooges... ble if you think... d, and had bi... poraries.

o-topped Be... school dance... Sinclair (lead... group) and the group was the o... during the 1968 Democratic Co... immediately after they finished th... simultaneously radicals and nihil... trouble for trouble's sake.

Continuing in that tradition thirty

Murder City Devils: Rock And Roll Won't Wait (Sogeneric Pictures)

When I was in college every black haired poetry club kid who was way into Morrissey had a Murder City Devils shirt. I always thought that was weird since Murder City's singer Spencer Moody sounded a lot like Glenn Danzig and they sang about knives, the devil's work and broken glass. This DVD collects highlights from their best live shows (including a gig with Pearl Jam in '98) documenting how they came outta Seattle to build a nice little career out of making college boys feel tough. EA

Hip-Hop Time Capsule: The Best Of Retv 1992 (Rap Entertainment)

Do I want to see the "Return Of The Funky Man" video by Lord Finesse—the brother with the fade, half-moon, and long sideburns? Yes. Do I want to see CL Smooth wearing a St. Ides baseball hat and "freestyling" a Pete Rock verse from "For Pete's Sake"? Yes. Do I want to see mad Cross Colors outfits? Totally. Do I want to see the horribleness of Big Daddy Kane's "For The Lover In You" and 18 poor tape-quality rap videos from 1992 awkwardly and abruptly edited together? Not necessarily. But this DVD does feature a live performance of the "Step To Me" from Tim Dog, so that evens things out. ED

TV Carnage DVD

If you don't find y... shit!" and "What t... enough, then TV... Compiled from th... of terrible, terrible... classic editions of... being re-released... with When Televis... with drunken corr... Now it's much ea... part where Steve... the truth about Al... Hall Show. ED

WHEN TELEVISION ATTACKS

