Corruption: Hellectrify Yourself(DVD)

The kings of Polish stoner rock unleash a rawkin video that clocks in at 130 minutes, featuring not only a kick-ass live performance but also bonus video and audio tracks, among other goodies. There's even an interview with the band (with English subtitles for those of you not up on your Polskiego). The band shines on tracks such as "Flying Carpet," "Junkie" and "Never Get Old," proving that it may very well do OK on this side of the ocean as what we need right now is a professional, high-energy rock 'n' roll band in exactly the vein of Corruption. The one complaint here is that there are sound glitches in the performance portion of the film—whereas the band should sound nice and bright it often sounds slightly buried. No matter, this is still a worthwhile watch and listen. Let's work on getting these guys over here, OK?
