DVD: QUIET RIOT '89 Live In Japan

MVD

Rating: 9 Out Of 10 - Reviewed by Bam-Bam

Although this isn't the band as you know it from their Metal Health era, it is, in my opinion, the best line-up the band ever saw. Fronted by Kevin Dubrow's awesome replacement, Paul Shortino (Rough Cutt) and with bass duties being handled by Sean McNabb (Everyone from Great White, Dokken, War & Peace and more!), guitarist Carlos Cavares and drummer Frankie Banalli put on one hell of a performance for this show! The band looks great and most of the hits are present including "Party All Night", "The Wild And The Young", and "Cum On Feel The Noise", but I was a little surprised that "Metal Health" was not included. One point off for that, but that gets negated by the fact that Frankie does a blistering drum solo that you get to see here in all its glory. Cool surprises were that "Copping A Feel" and "The Joker" are included in the show, plus you get a bonus video for "Stay With Me Tonight" in addition to the live performance of the tune. Overall this is one of the best packages for the money, chiming in at less than ten bucks, so you cannot go wrong. The video and the sound quality is primo, and this is a bit of Quiet Riot history that shouldn't be forgotten since I feel that Paul's addition to the band was really a step up from Dubrow. In stores now or you can go to the incredible site for everything music video; WWW.MUSICVIDEODISTRIBUTORS.COM, where you can find just about any artist you're looking for on DVD. Highly Recommended!!!
