

Main Menu

- Home
- Content:
- Metal News
- Album/CD Reviews
- All Reviews
- Hammerradio & video
- Website Links
- Search
- Recommend Us
- Stats
- Guestbook
- Interviews
- DVD Reviews

Who's Online

We have 1 guest and 0 member online

You are an anonymous user.
You can register for free by clicking here

Last User

Greetings to our newest member:
Sickvoice

Vader – Night Of The Apocalypse – MVD

Hammerhead rates it: ★★★★★ Community rates it: (no ratings yet)

This Polish band surfaced in Hammerhead way back when they were with Relativity. All these years later these Poles are playing it as brutal as ever. It all starts with them taking the stage during the eerie intro music. "Xeper" opens it a bit slower and is more of a nod to Slayer as I hear it. "Epitaph" brings in the more blistering speed this band has. Very morbid sounding stuff is here. These guys are a cult underground band that I have liked following over the years. Being able to see it live in the living room was nice. Most of this DVD has a good set live in Krakow in late 2002. Don't look for newer stuff here. Or then again I shouldn't say that. After this set of seventeen Vader track you are beaten down. Then again they cover "Raining Blood". The extra footage is a load to watch. Six songs from Matalmania 2003 and seven more from 2004 when they supportrd Slipknot and Metallica. Other tracks in the main set are the likes of "Nomad", "Carnal", "Sothis", "Silent Empire" and more. You then get a nice load of extras like the bands bio, interviews, photo's and more. More live on stage brutal metal for you to bang to.

Added: Friday, March 25, 2005

Related Link: VADER
hits: 3

 [Back to reviews index ]

Want to comment on this review?
Register here for a free user account, and you'll be able to.

All Material Copyright HAMMERHEAD ZINE 2004
Contact: hamhedzine@aol.com