The MC5 are coming to the small screen.

The Detroit proto-punk troublemakers will release their first DVD, Kick out the Jam, through Music Video Distributors July 12. Lasting a whopping 35 minutes, the video ignores the act's recent reunion under the name DTK-MC5, and instead turn its sights on the band's early '70s heyday. In addition to classic cuts such as "Kick out the Jams" and "Looking at You," the video collects interviews and art footage generated by the band's management.
