

Impotent Sea Snakes - Live in Germany

Hailing from Atlanta, Georgia, the Impotent Sea Snakes are a collective of raunchy rebels who revel in the excess of sex, glitter, and especially rock & roll. Decked out in elaborate costumes--or nothing at all--the group's showmanship is reminiscent of Bowie and Kiss. The ensemble's circus-like live show is tinged with elements of S&M, and is peppered with entirely debauched antics. And they can play, delivering music that moves from the straightforward rock of "The Resurrection of Rock & Roll," to the dance floor anthem, "For the Love of the Chains." This futuristic orgy of rock madness is like nothing you've ever seen before.

http://www.metrog.com/events/13\_joe.html