2005 VIDEO Live at the Dome

Like almost anyone born before 1990, I have heard of The Human League ...but I had to watch Live at the Dome to realise how many hits these guys actually had.

On Live at the Dome we get to see a band at the top of their form, clearly happy to play all their hits to an enthusiastic crowd. The concert is simply (but very well) filmed, the performance is great and the sound is excellent.

Fans of the band and of 80's Brit Pop in general should really enjoy this DVD. Thanks again to the folks at MVD for making available such a great product. Use our direct link to MVD to sample some video of this great concert. Highly recommended.
