Murphy's Law is a hardcore band from New York City and was formed in 1985. The two shows on here were filmed in New York and Pennsylvania and basically it looks more like a party than a stage show which is very cool. A lot of interaction with the audience and nothing is funnier than seeing Drescher light up a joint at the club in New York and saying that it isn't a cigarette. I think this is a must for any Murphy's Law collector. These guys are punk to the end.
