MUSIC

VOIVOD

Music Video Distributors; $14.95

Canadian metal band Voivod boast the distinction of being the first thrash band to gain a following worldwide. Though this is no small feat, they have continued to expand their musical explorations throughout their long career, embracing industrial and avant-garde elements.

The selection of material featured in the DVD includes all of the videos recorded during the 1980s with the original lineup, including "Ripping Headaches," "Ravenous Medicine," "Tribal Convictions," "Psychic Vacuum," and "Astronomy Domine."

Live and studio performances feature the band between 1983 and 1991, when personnel changes caused the band to deviate from their thrash roots.

NASCAR NEXTEL CUP 2005

Melee Studio; List Price: $19.99

The 2005 NASCAR Nextel Cup season kept the throttle wide open over 36 races, covering ten months, ten thousand laps, and 14,000 miles of door-to-door action. Thanks to NASCAR Images, race fans can now relive the season over and over in their very own homes.

NASCAR Nextel Cup 2005 is a cinema-style experience that slows down just long enough for fans to relive the excitement of one of NASCAR's most memorable seasons. From Jeff Gordon's season-opening Daytona 500 victory to the ten-driver, ten-race pressure cooker of the Chase for the Nextel Cup.

NASCAR Images cameras go behind the scenes and high above the action to capture the moments that powered the 2005 season from green flag to checkered. Jimmie Johnson's dominant spring stretch, Carl Edwards' improbable Atlanta sweep, Tony Stewart's emotional Indianapolis victory, Dale Earnhardt Junior's breeze through the Windy City, every scintillating win and every heartbreaking loss. The tension builds as the final ten title contenders march toward the season finale at Homestead and NASCAR legends march toward the close of their storybook careers.
